muscle confidence and strength

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Recent testimonials have shown that the musclebuilding know-how imparted in the Newest Bodybuilding method to be introduced to the North American market may really contribute towards building a well muscled, proportionate physique. This method, known as MUSCLE FIGHTER IV has received much praise from those who have put it to the test. Gains in increased muscular body weight, loss of flab and the improvement of stamina have been little short of phenomenal. Reports from all over North America testify to the effectiveness of the MUSCLE FIGHTER IV plan.

The plan does not involve hours and hours of daily training and it may be followed in the privacy of your own room. Any man between 15 - 50 who has had a fitness checkup (not just a bill of good health under restful conditions) and who is prepared to tailor the program to his particular physical condition and age may apply.

The MUSCLE FIGHTER IV directors insist that there is no overnight method which can build huge muscles instantly. Gaining muscle size, firming up the body, and increasing strength all takes time and effort - But you as a man who may fit the requirements you may do it!

This company does not claim that you can build a fantastic body in seven days, or seven weeks. This is a three month course! And it will certainly take considerably longer than that to build a fantastic body like Robert Nailon's shown here! He has been training for a number of years.

"Sir, my improvement has been great - What a course!"
D.H. FLUSHING, N.Y.

"Dear Sir, I cannot believe the way I feel - This program has really opened my eyes."
TOM KLEIN, N.J.

"Dear friends, MUSCLE FIGHTER IV did it - I will always be appreciative. Thanks a million."
RICK THOMPSON, L.A. CA.

"I worked hard and got excellent results more power to your program."
JFK, NEW ORLEANS

"I gained muscle and body weight - Thank you for making me happier."
JOHN FARMER, BROOKLYN N.Y.

"Super appearance - Super feeling - What more can I say - I am proud."
TOM R. TORONTO, ONT.

The MUSCLE FIGHTER IV plan is not recommended for those who are not perfectly fit and healthy, nor is it advised for those who are lazy indolent or lacking in initiative. This wonderful new program involves no special apparatus whatsoever. A FREE book describing how you may get started with this new method will be sent at once. Simply fill in the coupon below! You may NEVER regret it! There is no obligation. Only those interested in physical improvement need apply. Limit one book per family. Send no money!

Don Bolander says: "Now you can learn to speak and write like a college graduate."

Is Your English Holding You Back?

"Do you avoid the use of certain words even though you know perfectly well what they mean? Have you ever been embarrassed because you pronounced a word incorrectly? Are you sometimes unsure of yourself in a conversation with new acquaintances? Do you have difficulty writing a good letter or putting your true thoughts down on paper?"

"If so, then you're a victim of crippled English," says Don Bolander, Director of Career Institute. "Crippled English is a handicap suffered by countless numbers of intelligent, adult men and women. Quite often they are held back in their jobs and their social lives because of their English. And yet, for one reason or another, it is impossible for these people to go back to school."

Is there any way, without going back to school, to overcome this handicap? Don Bolander says, "Yes!" With degrees from the University of Chicago and Northwestern University, Bolander is an authority on adult education. For almost twenty years he has helped thousands of men and women stop making mistakes in English, increase their vocabularies, improve their writing, and become interesting conversationalists right in their own homes.

BOLANDER TELLS HOW IT CAN BE DONE

During a recent interview, Bolander said, "You don't have to go back to school in order to speak and write like a college graduate. You can gain the ability quickly and easily in the privacy of your own home through the Career Institute Method." In his answers to the following questions, Bolander tells how it can be done.

Question: What is so important about a person's ability to speak and write?

Answer: People judge you by the way you speak and write. Poor English weakens your self-confidence—handicaps you in your dealings with other people. Good English is absolutely necessary for getting ahead in business and social life. You can't express your ideas fully or reveal your true personality without a sure command of good English.

Question: What do you mean by a "command of good English"?

Answer: A command of good English means you can express yourself clearly and easily without fear of embarrassment or making mistakes. It means you can write well, carry on a good conversation—also read rapidly and remember what you read. Good English can help you throw off self-doubts that may be holding you back.

Question: Are there other advantages to be gained by acquiring a command of good English?

Answer: Yes! Words are actually "tools of thought." The more you learn about words and how to use them to form and express your ideas, the better your thinking becomes. For this reason a command of good English often pays off in unexpected ways.

Question: Wouldn't I have to go back to school to gain a command of good English?

Answer: No, not anymore. You can gain the ability to speak and write like a college graduate right in your own home—in only a few minutes each day.

Question: Is this something new?

Answer: Career Institute of Chicago has been helping people for many years. The Career Institute Method quickly shows you how to stop making embarrassing mistakes, enlarge your vocabulary, develop your writing ability, discover the "secrets" of interesting conversation.

Question: How do I know it works?

Answer: There are thousands of letters in my files, testimonials from people in all walks of life who have used the proved Career Institute Method to achieve amazing results. If you send in the coupon below, I will share some of these letters with you.

Question: Who are some of these people?

Answer: The Career Institute Method is used by men and women of all ages. Some have attended college, others high school, and others only grade school. The method has helped business men and women, homemakers, industrial workers, clerks, secretaries... almost anyone you can think of.

Question: How long will it take me to learn to speak and write like a college graduate, using your method?

Answer: Some people take only a few weeks to gain a command of good English. Others take longer. It is up to you to set your own pace. In as little time as 15 minutes a day, you will see quick results.

Question: How can I find out more about the Career Institute Method?

Answer: I will gladly mail you a free 32-page booklet which explains the new easy-to-follow Career Institute Method and tells you how you can gain a command of good English quickly and enjoyably at home. Send coupon, card, or letter today to Career Institute, Dept. 899-36 Mundelein, Ill. 60060.

SINCERELY YOURS

Sad because Bobby Shane (above) had his moustache and hair cut? Don't worry--they've grown back!

CRIME AGAINST BEAUTY

How could anyone in the world want to cut off Bobby Shane's beautiful blonde hair!? When I read "Bobby Shane: Hair Today, Gone Tomorrow," (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July '74) I cried for almost an hour.

Bobby Shane had the most beautiful blonde hair I have ever seen! It made him the handsomest wrestler alive and now they've cut it off. And to make matters worse they cut off his moustache, too! How could those people do it?

I know it must have been a conspiracy to get Bobby that made him lose the match and his hair. Others are simply jealous of the greatest wrestler alive today—Bobby Shane!

Don't worry, Bobby. No matter what they do to you, we'll always love you.

THE BANNING OF HEENAN

Is there no way to stop the terrible Bobby Heenan? There is no excuse for his being allowed to continue his attempts at the physical destruction of Bruno Sammartino (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July '74).

How can the associations sit back and let an unscrupulous manager like Heenan sic his animals on the greatest wrestler the sport has ever known? After all Bruno has done for wrestling, you'd think professional wrestling wouldn't permit Heenan's men to attempt the destruction of Bruno's career, if not his life.

More and more fans are up in arms at Bobby Heenan (above). They feel he should be banned.

The only way we can discourage the sort of cruel vendettas that Heenan has against Bruno is to ban Heenan from professional wrestling. Let's make wrestling a sport and not a form of legalized murder!

RONALD JOHNSON
Peoria, Ill.

A SOLUTION

I think I've solved the problem Billy Robinson has when he signs to wrestle Ray Stevens or Nick Bockwinkle and winds up wrestling them both ("It Doesn't Have To Be A Tag Team Match For Bockwinkle and Stevens To Work Together" SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July '74).

Why doesn't Robinson stipulate in his contract that when he wrestles Bockwinkle, Stevens must be bound hand and foot before the match starts. I'm sure that any Boy Scout can tie up the guy so he can't escape before the match is over.

Of course, Robinson isn't the only one who would benefit from this. Everyone who has to wrestle those clowns could do this and insure that only one wrestler will subject them to dirty tactics.

My other suggestion is to drop Stevens and Bockwinkle in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean!

PROUD OF THE GIANT

Reading the wonderful story written by Andre the Giant, "I'm Proud to Be A Giant!" (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July '74) made me realize once again how lucky we wrestling fans are to be alive during the time this great man graces the sport.

N O W THE WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING SECRETS CAN BE YOURS...

THE SUPREME GRAND MASTER OF THE
BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY
brings you the forbidden secrets of

DIM MAK

"The Death Touch"

in this exclusive book!

"THE DEADLIEST MAN ALIVE!"

Bringing to you these forbidden and secret fighting arts is the Supreme Grand Master of all the fighting arts — Count Dante who won the World overall Fighting Arts championship (Master & Expert Divisions) after defeating the top Judo, Boxing, Wrestling, Karate, Gung Fu, Aikido, etc. masters in 'Death Matches'. On Aug. 1, 1967 the World Federation of Fighting Arts crowned the Count — "The World's Deadliest Fighting Master."

THIS BOOK CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

The FORBIDDEN and SECRET training manual of the BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY has never before been available to anyone outside of the Society. Recent attempts for regular publication and public exposure have been rejected as the contents were considered HORRIFYINGLY DANGEROUS and BRUTALLY VICIOUS.

Yes, this is the DEADLIEST and most TERRIFYING fighting art known to man — and WITHOUT EQUAL. Its MAIMING, MUTILATING, DISFIGURING, PARALYZING and CRIPPLING techniques are known by only a few people in the world. An expert at DIM MAK could easily kill many Judo, Karate, Aikido and Gung Fu experts at one time with only finger tip pressure using his murderous POISON HAND WEAPONS. Instructing you step by step thru each move in this manual is now other than COUNT DANTE — THE DEADLIEST MAN WHO EVER LIVED.

BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY

The BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY is the WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING ORGANIZATION which has included in its closed membership the top fighting experts of the DREADED CHINESE TONG SOCIETY — the oriental, and more vicious counterpart of the Mafia. Its members, who are the world's top Masters in the oriental fistic and grappling arts, train in the most SECRET and FORBIDDEN aspects of the DEADLY Chinese fighting arts of GUNG FU, TAI CHI CHUAN, CHUAN-FA, KEMPO, HSING YI, PA-KUA, SHAOLIN BOXING and DIM MAK.

Until recently the forbidden training secrets of the society have been closely guarded by the members who were sworn to secrecy and joined together thru their initiation ceremony of blood. Breaking of the oath to secrecy meant death by torture to the offender.

Now for the first time their FORBIDDEN SECRETS OF TERROR can be shared with you.

BREAK A BRICK

Included in the manual is a GUARANTEED method of brick and board breaking enabling anyone to break a brick or board after only minutes of training. THIS IS NO EXAGGERATION. THERE IS NO TRICK OR GIMMICK. There is nothing to be held in the hand, or any hand brace needed; and no special stunt bricks or boards are needed. This is the same method that many famous Karate Masters use.

POISON HAND

Considered by many as evil and cruel; the lethally savage ripping, tearing, slashing, clawing and gouging techniques which comprise the POISON HAND ARSENAL are used to attack (by strike, touch or pressure) the nerve centers, pressure points, major blood vessels and vital organs of the body. You will learn the original 77 "POISON HAND" techniques of ancient China in actual photographs showing them in application. These are not photos of drawings, but actual photos of COUNT DANTE applying these torturing techniques which are meant to maim, disfigure, cripple or kill and have been used by oriental terrorists and assassins to MURDER!

OUR $10,000 GUARANTEE

We cannot guarantee to make you a Fighting Arts Master or even an expert, as this is up to you; but we can make a $10,000 GUARANTEE that this book is DEADLIER than any other book, manual or course ever printed anywhere, at any cost and that it was, as mentioned before, refused for past publication due to its extremely FEROCIOUS nature. We also guarantee that the "WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING SECRETS" contains the most SECRET and FORBIDDEN attack and defense methods ever devised by man and that the DIM MAK and POISON HAND techniques are completely authentic and the WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING FORMS. Last we guarantee that you can break a real, authentic brick or board WITH NO GIMMICK — just your hand, using our method AFTER ONLY MINUTES OF TRAINING. DEATH!

THE FOURTH MAN IN THE RING

Young Dennis Clary (left) died due to injuries inflicted in the ring. He had a fantastic career going before the tragic event. Gypsy Joe (above) came within a fraction of losing his life. Doctors worked feverishly to save him.

EVERYTHING WAS GOING so well for Alberto Torres. His career was finally beginning to gain momentum. Winning a championship was finally more than idle daydream. A victory over The Claw, a brutally dirty wrestler, would insure his inclusion in the top 10 wrestlers in his area.

DEATH!

going to win easily. He dominated the match, driving The Claw to more and more desperate measures.

With a conclusive defeat staring him in the face, The Claw climbed to the top rope and hurled his body at Torres. It was a perfect leap across Torres' body and Alberto crashed to the canvas.

The Claw had his man down and kept jumping and crashing onto Alberto's chest. The Claw was disqualified but it didn't matter. He kept it up. They had to drag the savage wrestler off his fallen opponent, who lay terrifyingly still.

Torres was taken to the hospital where it was discovered his rib cage had been crushed. Doctors worked feverishly to repair the damage but to no avail. Shortly afterwards, Alberto Torres joined the most dreaded list in professional sports—those who have died from injuries suffered in their profession.

Every professional wrestler accepts the risk that each match may be his last. It's something they learn not to think about but it's as much a part of their lives as traveling. Death at any moment is a due every professional wrestler must be willing to pay.

Does anyone remember Joe Shimkus? George Kinney? Steve Znoski? How about Jack Lewis? Jim Browning? Eli Fisher? Eddie Baker? Where has the magic gone which was once associated with the name of Tex Wright? Buddy O'Brien? Gordon McKinley?

Each of these men had their lives ended by injuries inflicted during matches. Perhaps the greatest fame any one of these men was to achieve occurred the day they made the headlines twice—once on the sports page, once on the obituary page.

Dennis Clary, at age 32, had everything going for him. He was almost assured of someday becoming champion. His skill, strength, and cunning made him a definite future superstar. It was just a matter of a very short time.

Yet Dennis was doomed to less time than he needed. He fell victim to sudden attacks of nausea, dizziness, hazy vision, and blinding

Mike Romano (above) and Gordon McKinley were both victims of death due to ring injuries. Although they wrestled many years ago, modern day wrestlers face the same fate each time they step into the ring. headaches that made his life miserable.

During a match he collapsed after being punished by two vicious body slams. He was rushed to the hospital where the doctors discovered a giant brain tumor. The emergency operation was futile.

Who knows in which one of Clary's hundreds of matches he suffered the injury which started the Build MUSCLE!

Use "ISOKINETICS" -- the really new breakthrough!

TRY POWEREX 14 DAYS AT OUR RISK

Here's what Isokinetics Can Do For You!

Changing the weight resistance at any instant during the exercise??? Without stopping to do it??? Yes! . . . this is the Isokinetic Principle, which builds your body to athletic proportions faster and more efficiently than any other method! Your Powerex Isokinetic Exerciser is shown adding the inches of chest and arm muscle in a "bench press," but without expensive bench, weight stand, and clumsy weights.

You use the Powerex just like a barbell! You get 0 to over 200 pounds of resistance by squeezing the control levers! Yet Powerex is compact and weighs less than two pounds!

(Patent Pending)

Results FAST! Here's Proof!

Some researchers conducted a scientific experiment and published the results in a leading medical journal. It showed that the average peak strength improvement, after only eight weeks, for each type of exercise was:

Isokinetics	47.2%
Weight training	28.6%
Isometrics	12.1%

Another group of researchers stated that all published research matching isokinetics with weight training and isometrics showed that isokinetics is greatly superior for muscle building.

"I am a weight lifter of eight years. However, after using the Powerex just once, I sold all of my weights!" James Hinson Jr., NC.

"Gained 20 lbs., increased arms 2½ inches, chest 3 inches, reduced waist 2 inches. Look and feel a lot better!" Joseph Moreno, CA.

"Before, I was known as a singles hitter. This past season I was a home run hitter and I credit Powerex with this!" T. J., AL.

"I reduced my waist 3", increased my arms 1½ inches, chest 2½ inches. Powerex has been the greatest!" D. Owens, MA.

"You aren't just another rip-off company . . . you back what you say!" T. Roecklin, WI.

"Easy to use, easy to store! Good program, no frustrations or unnecessary holdups as with a weight program!" J. Hanna, PA.

"In the short time I have been using the Powerex, I have put over an inch on my arms, 2 inches on my chest, and gained 21 lbs.!" Scott Carterette, CA.

"After only two weeks, I am dead-lifting 450 lbs., bench pressing 240 lbs., and squatting with 400 lbs. I'm glad that I invested the $13.95!" Richard Oxer, MT.

Scientific tests prove isokinetics 166% better than weights, 390% better than isometrics, for putting muscle on you!

For building your muscle, your strength, your body, your explosive power . . . discover what ISOKINETICS does for you! Until Powerex was perfected . . . at a price anyone can afford . . . Isokinetic Muscle Building was available only to those who could afford exercisers costing $120 to $5000. Now find out what Isokinetics can do for you . . . test the remarkable Powerex for 14 days at no risk to you.

You'll build your muscles with Powerex just like you'd use a barbell. BUT with the Isokinetic Principle added! You regulate the resistance (or "weight") by a simple squeeze on the control levers. This way, you "squeeze" the exact resistance you want at every instant you are using the Powerex. Instantly variable from 0 to over 200 pounds . . . while you move smoothly and steadily through each exercise to give you fastest possible muscular development.

Powerex is compact, weighs less than two pounds. Take it anywhere you go. Exercise daily, anywhere. You never have to interrupt your body building program.

Powerex builds your muscles completely, thru the full range of movement. It works every small muscle fiber to its peak. Not the "grunt and groan" static results from some isometric gadget, but full and total muscular development. This is the building power of Isokinetics.

Money-Back Guarantee

Powerex is 100% guaranteed for a full year. Try it, use it, compare it with any other exerciser or system. If you are not satisfied with your Powerex for any reason at all, send it back within 14 days of receipt for an immediate refund of your money . . . no questions asked.

AND . . . the best part, Powerex costs only $13.95! Right! For around 1/10th of the cost of the least expensive full range isokinetic exerciser on the market, Powerex is ready to work for you and your body. You can't lose . . . and how you can win!

Fill out the coupon, enclose check or money order, and get it in the mail. The sooner you do, the sooner Powerex will arrive to start you on the Isokinetic way to a muscular body and dynamic power!

THE SWELLING AROUND his eye was a bulging, bluish mound when Bull Ramos finally got the ice pack on it. Ice wasn't enough. This black eye needed the largest steak in Houston!

Once the eye was taken care of, Ramos would tend to throbbing in his jaw. From there, he did what little can be done for sore ribs.

"You can't depend on anything anymore," Ramos moaned while receiving medical attention.

"Who the hell needs tough referees? I like my refs weak and helpless. I expect to wrestle a wrestler, not get beaten up by a referee!"

"Referees are supposed to restore order. They're supposed to make everything legal, peaceful, and stop all violence."

Ramos removed the steak from his eye, and shoving his face at his visitors, asked, "Does my face look like the referee stopped violence?"

The referee Ramos was complaining about used to be the feared wrestler Dangerous Danny McShane. Danny's wrestling ability was overshadowed by his viciously dirty tactics and love of chaos. That's the way Danny used to be.

Danny is now one of the most respected referees in wrestling. He tolerates no illegal maneuvers and he knows just what to look for. During the Ramos incident, though, it didn't take a professional referee to see what rules were broken.

Ramos was scheduled to wrestle

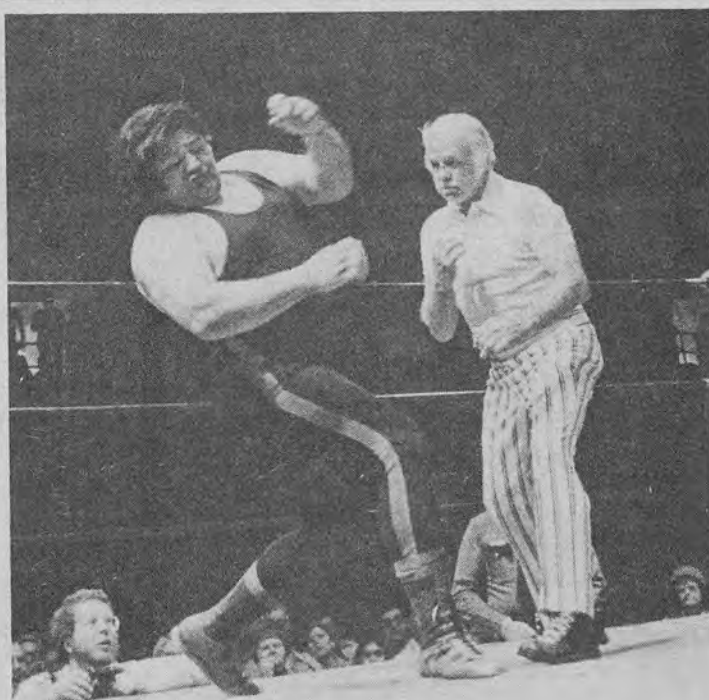

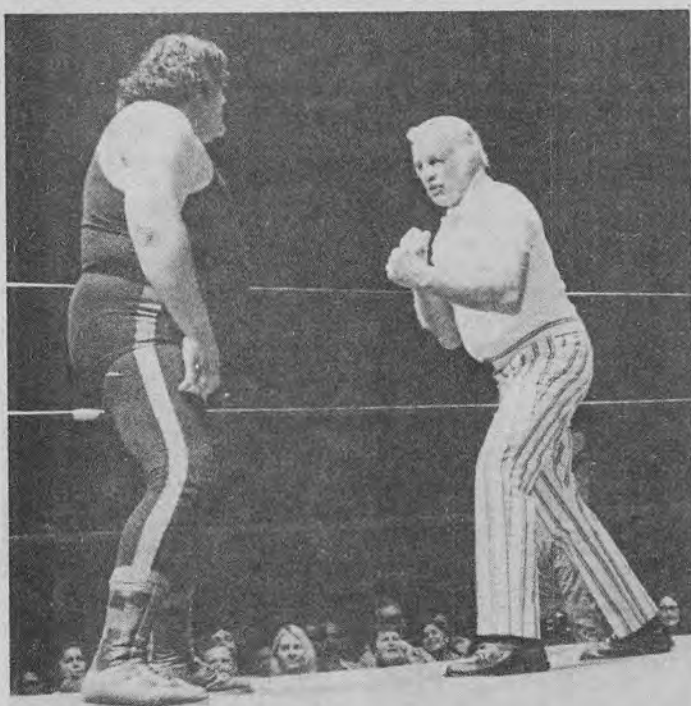

Bob Roop. Roop was barely through the ropes when Bull savagely kicked him in the head. Before Bob could collect his senses to defend himself, Ramos was plowing in and slamming away.

McShane told Ramos to stop immediately or be disqualified. Bull didn't seem to hear.

"You're disqualified!" McShane shouted angrily. "So get the hell out of here!"

In what will go down in history as one of the great mistakes, Ramos challenged. "Make me!" and continued to pound away at the helpless Roop.

McShane accepted the invitation. If it took six seconds for Danny to punch Ramos back to the dressing room, that's giving Ramos the benefit of the doubt. Spectators counted 15 machine-gun punches before Ramos was able to flee back to the dressing room.

McShane helped Roop to his feet. Once Bob's head cleared, he thanked Danny and asked the referee if he would officiate at his next match against Ramos.

"I'll make it a bit easier for you this time," Bob promised. "All you'll have to do will be to signal for the stretcher once I get Ramos in a neck-breaker!"

"I'll be there to signal," Danny promised.

After the fans had long ago gone home, Danny sat sipping from a container of scalding black coffee and explained how it feels to uphold the rules after a long career of breaking them.

"I've always done my job to the best of my ability," Danny explained. "When I was a wrestler, my job was to win. I didn't care how I did it. Now my job is to uphold the rules. I do that to the best of my ability."

"I guess you could find irony in the fact that I'm upholding the same rules I was so successful in breaking. Admittedly, even I feel funny sometimes yelling at guys to stop doing things not half as bad as the stuff I did."

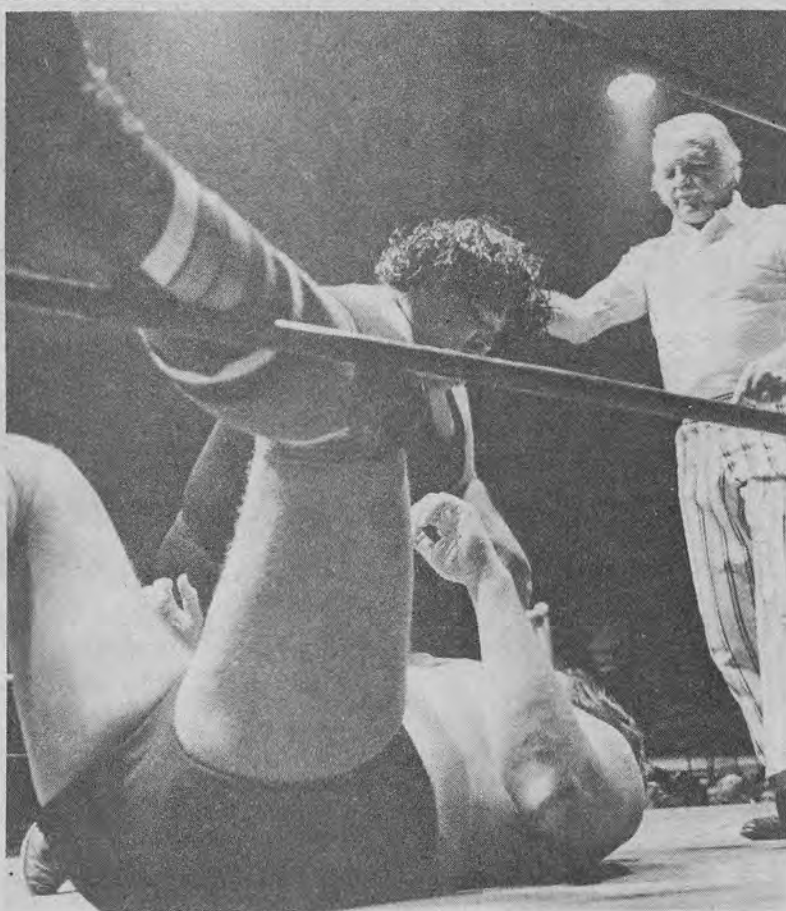

McShane has learned some things from trying to uphold the rules instead of breaking them.

"I developed a great respect," Danny acknowledges, "for the guys who wrestle scientifically. If guys did to me what I've seen some of the clean wrestlers take, I'd break their heads. But these guys believe in principles, the dignity of the sport. I never realized it before but scientific wrestlers are very special people."

Has referee Danny McShane ever wondered what he would do to wrestler Danny McShane?

"I'd disqualify myself so fast it would make my head spin," Danny says with a laugh. "And I'd probably have a lot tougher time beating me up than I have with the other guys! Referee Danny McShane is very happy he'll never have to referee a match with wrestler Danny McShane!" □

BULLINSKI DIDN'T BITE OFF MORE THAN HE COULD CHEW

Tosh Togo kept slashing karate chops into Bull Bullinski's back, tearing away the muscles. When Bullinski got his hands on Togo's foot he decided that wasn't enough

After being hit with a barrage of kicks, Bull Bullinski takes more punishment (right). When he got out of trouble, he took a bite out of Togo's foot (top of page)! Togo hobbled back to the dressing room with a bloody foot! Bullinski admitted, "Those kicks almost crippled me."

A SAVAGE KARATE kick lashed into Bull Bullinski's back. Tosh Togo repeated the kick countless times, tearing muscles with cruel efficiency. It would only take a few more well-placed kicks to destroy Bullinski's back and maybe his career.

However, Togo became overconfident. His foot lashed out but missed Bullinski entirely. Togo sailed over his victim and crashed to the canvas.

Bullinski crawled to his fallen opponent, his back in agony. His anger, however, was greater than his pain as he flopped on top of Togo.

He then grabbed the foot that had made his back a horror of torn muscles. Within seconds, Togo's foot was clenched between Bullinski's teeth! And Togo's shrieks were echoing throughout the arena.

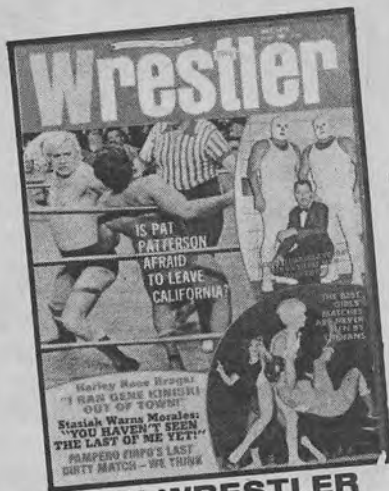

Eventually, Bullinski released his bite, though not before Tosh had submitted. When he was freed, Togo hobbled toward the dressing room as fast as his bleeding, injured foot could get him there. He left a trail of bloody footprints in his wake.

Bullinski needed help getting back to the dressing room. Once avenged, the pain overtook him and Bull could barely move. Trainers worked feverishly over his back for two hours after the match, repairing the damage from the kicks.

"I should have torn the damn thing off," Bullinski said as they bandaged him up. "He tried to finish me tonight. I should have made that fat slob the cripple he tried to make me. Yeah, I could have had his foot stuffed and mounted."

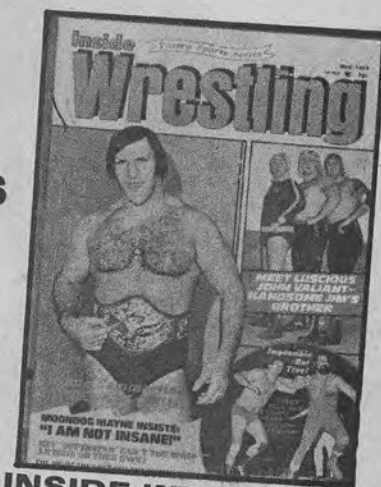

Togo's foot remained at the end of his leg. And the pain it caused him will make him remember Bull Bullinski for a long time. □

VERNE GAGNE'S 25 YEARS IN WRESTLING!

PHENOMENAL. THAT'S THE only word that comes close to describing Verne Gagne's 25 years in wrestling.

From his first match, one he'll never forget against a guy named Abe Kashey in Minneapolis, Verne Gagne has captured the fancy of fans all over the world.

Great feats by Verne include the capturing of the National Wrestling Alliance's Junior Heavyweight title, and of course the American Wrestling Alliance championship among many, many others.

Great wrestlers during the years have come and gone. Antonino Rocca, Buddy Rogers, and Whipper Watson just to name a few. Verne's seen them all pass, yet he's managed to stay on top, never even hinting at retiring.

"Why retire?" Verne asks. "I feel great. I'll keep wrestling until the day I'm no longer capable. And believe me, that won't be for a long time if I have anything to say."

Veteran announcer Marty O'Neal has seen Gagne during many of Verne's greatest moments. He sums Gagne's career up like this:

"For the sake of wrestling, I hope Verne Gagne doesn't quit. Fine men like him are hard to find. He's a true gentleman and a classic wrestler. I've been lucky enough to see many of his glorious moments. But there have also been sad times. But Verne Gagne always bounced back. He's a great man and not enough can be said about him."

If we tried to print all the nice things people have said about Gagne in the past 25 years, we'd have to make this magazine 10 times bigger! □

PICTORIAL

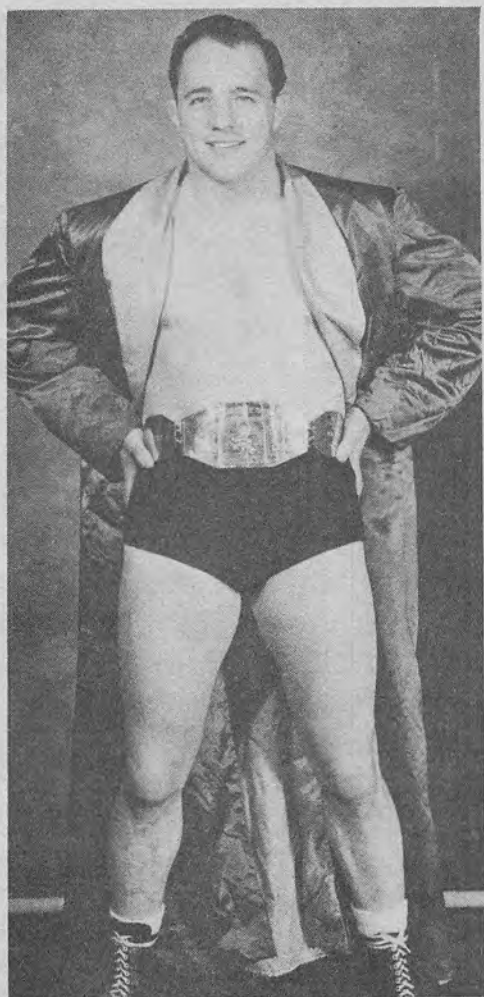

Verne Gagne has seen all the greats come and go while he remains at the top of his profession. Now he's celebrating his first 25 years as a professional wrestler. All those who know him hope he has many more years as a champion inside and outside the arena

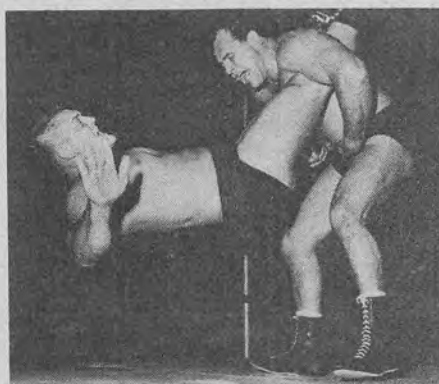

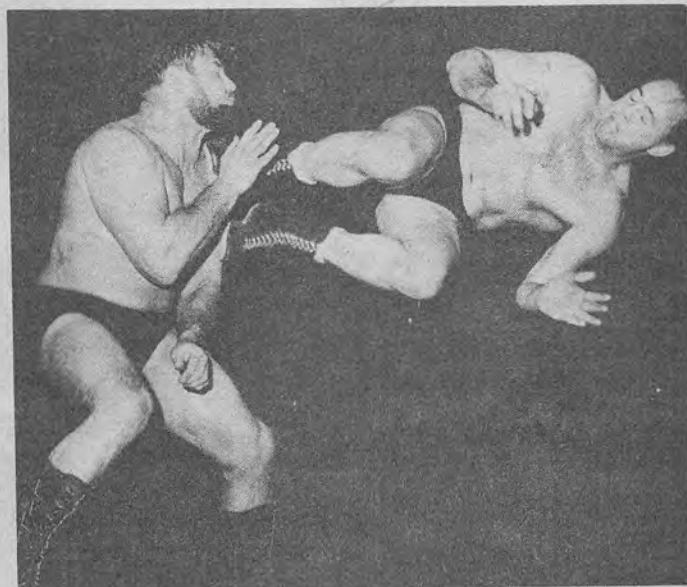

HIGHLIGHTS OF GAGNE'S FANTASTIC CAREER

Some of Verne's most brutal matches were against Bruiser (above). His most scientific? Against Edouard Carpentier (right). Each of their matches were considered real classics.

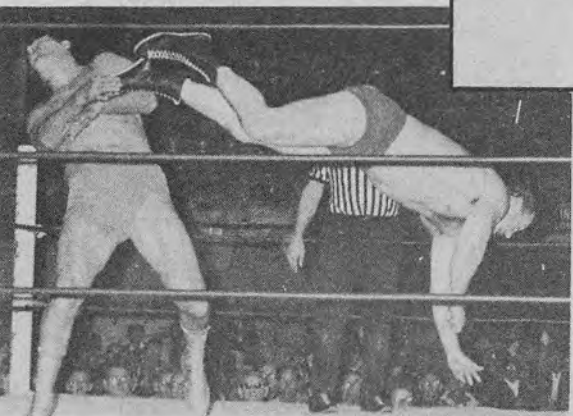

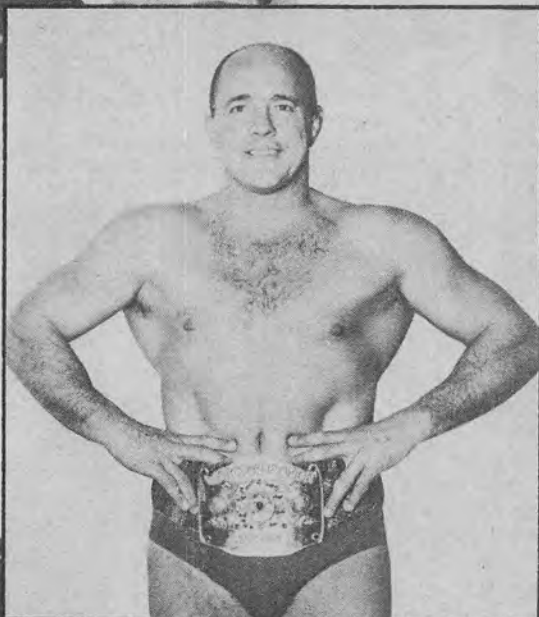

Verne's feuds with Killer Kowalski have seen them go at it even in tag team matches (left). Bruiser gets a sample of Verne's flying tactics (right). All their bouts were wild brawls.

Gagne steps all over Crusher in this 1963 battle (above). He's on the way to busting Larry Hennig's leg (below). Verne was Larry's teacher early in Larry's career and Hennig turned against him. They've been feuding since.

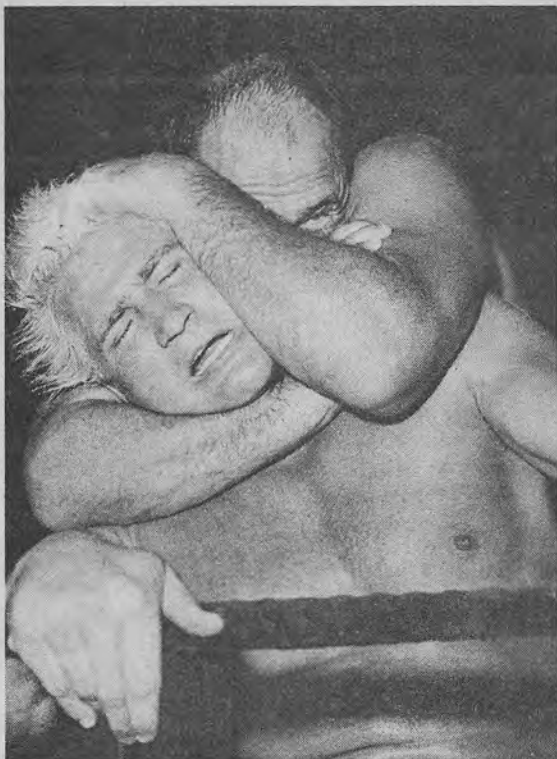

A proud Verne Gagne shows off the American Wrestling Association Championship title belt he won several years ago (right). He has defended it all over the world against any and all challengers. "I don't feel I've intentionally ducked anyone," Verne says.

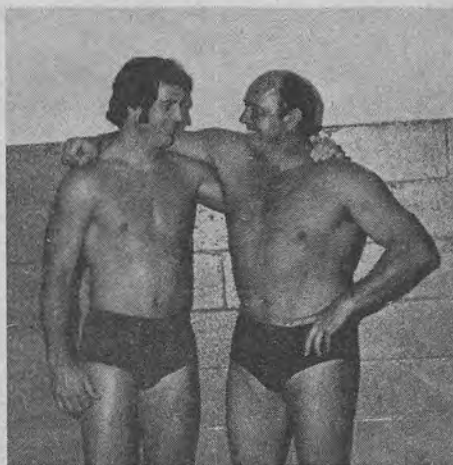

Another view of Verne's dropkick (above). This time Kowalski is getting hit with it. Big Don Leo Jonathan has his hands full with Verne (right). Verne's agility makes him able to handle almost any opponent of any size.

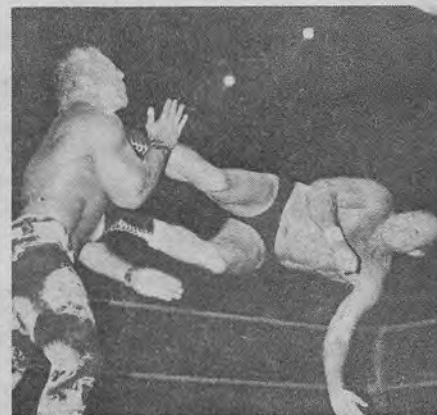

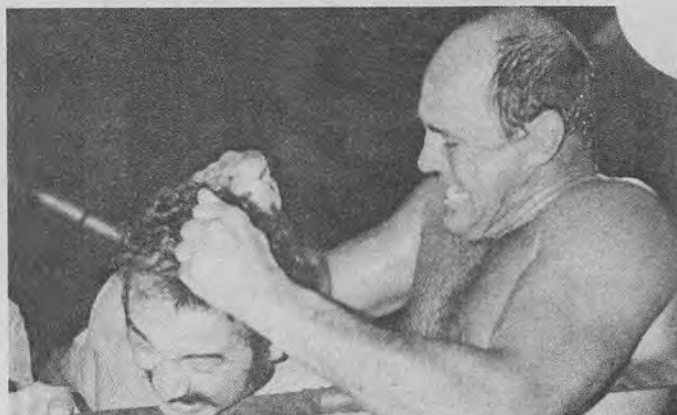

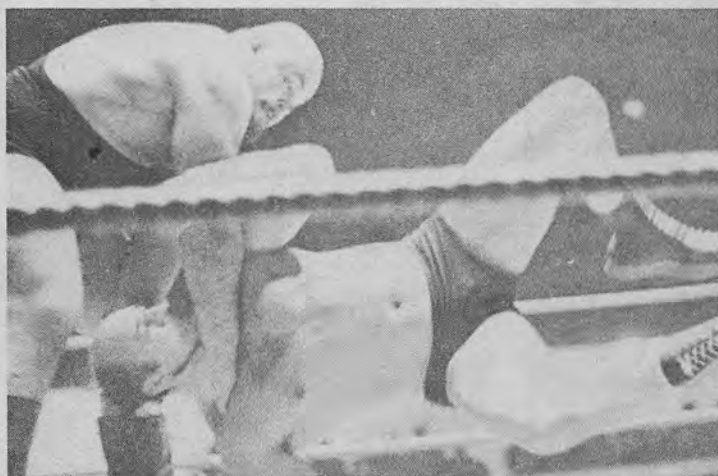

Verne's pride and joy is his son Greg (with him below). Greg's career is already zooming. The biggest threat to Gagne's belt is Billy Robinson (right). Only technical losses have saved the champion from almost sure defeat.

The sleeper is probably Verne's favorite and most effective hold. Stan Lisowski feels the effects (above). Gagne can brawl with the best of the rule breakers as is evident (right) in his match against Blackjack Lanza.

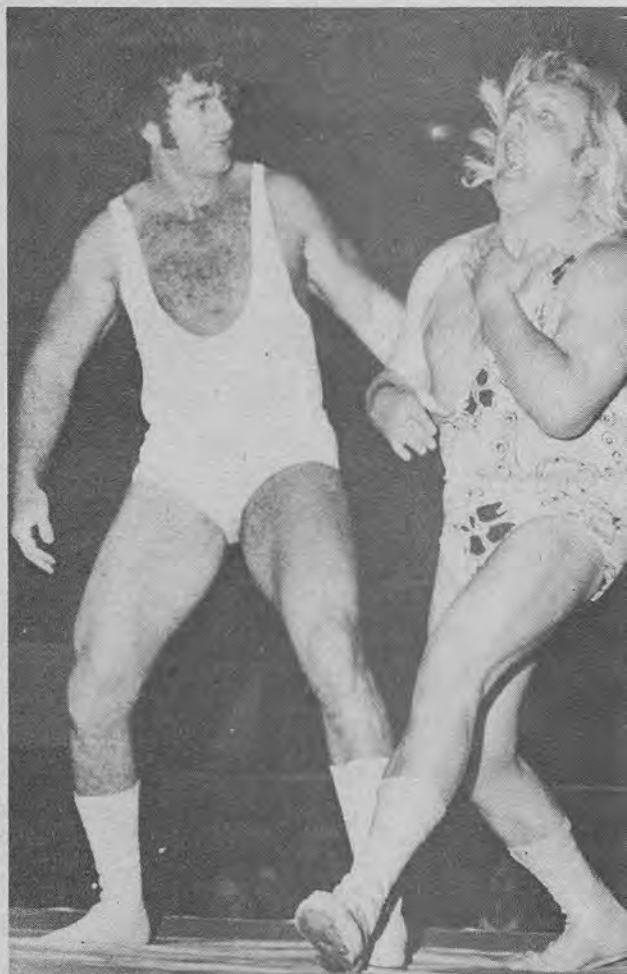

Another man Verne's had a bit of trouble with is Billy Graham. He dropkicks his way to a win (above). Veteran announcer Marty O'Neal interviews Gagne (below).

Russian giant Ivan Koloff corkscrews Verne during a wild match in Minnesota, Gagne's home state. "It's a great feeling wrestling before your close neighbors," Verne says.

WHEN THE GARVINS retire and are asked to make a list of the enemies they made in wrestling, they'd better have a lot of paper, many pencils, and lotsa time. They'll need it.

The South is used to feuding families, even families that don't need another family with which to feud. However, there had been nothing in the feuding past to prepare anyone for the Garvins.

The Garvins consider themselves a united front against the rest of professional wrestling. It's the Garvins against everyone else, in the best tradition of family feuds.

If one person insults another person, the offended's family declares war against the offender's family. The Garvins consider themselves one family. All other wrestlers are another family.

One would think the Garvins learned their attitude while growing up in the hills of Tennessee. Except that the Garvins were born and raised in Canada.

"Maybe we should have been raised in the mountains," Ronnie Garvin says, "because we Garvins make great feuders." We've never trusted anyone whose last name isn't Garvin. We're just natural feuders. It's us against the world. And we're determined to make the world come in second best."

"We enjoy wrestling down South," Terry Garvin declares, "because those people really appreciate feuders. Southerners can understand better than anyone why, if someone offends you, everyone connected with him is guilty. The people of the South understand what's going through our minds when we wrestle. I enjoy that."

Through the years the Garvin

Terry (left) tries to run away from the action. A doubleteam effort, with Armstrong in the middle (below), fails as Bob smashes Ronnie and then kicks Terry away. The two teams have feuded for months now.

FEUDIN' DOWN SOUTH!

Brothers have had many painful reasons to bear a grudge against Bob Armstrong, a veteran of many savage battles against the Garvins.

Bob Fuller may only be wrestling a few years, but that's long enough for the Garvins to have made him an enemy.

So when the Garvins discovered they were signed to wrestle Armstrong and Fuller, the brothers became elated.

"Revenge!" Garvin screamed. "We're going to get REVENGE against that pair of miserable clods!"

For what they were going to be avenged was unimportant, if a reason existed at all. All that mattered was the feud was on and the Gar-vins were ready to settle old scores, real or imaginary.

When Jim Garvin was told his brothers would wrestle Armstrong and Fuller, he insisted he, in some way, be involved.

"We're a family," Jim said, "and what happens to one happens to all. I've got to help in some way."

His two brothers were delighted to have him and Jim became their manager.

Bob Armstrong and Bob Fuller aren't related but they wrestle together with the coordination of brothers. They are able to sense

The fans and other wrestlers know about Jim Bernard—

"THE BRUTE."

That's why they say....

STOP HIM BEFORE HI

AS "THE BRUTE" STRODE DOWN the aisle from the dressing room, a thousand citizens of Flint, Michigan jeered and hissed. The arena in which wrestling shows are held in Flint is small and something of a firetrap; they don't allow smoking, so the air is clear, if not exactly fresh. It makes the crowd noises seem even louder. For The Brute, they were deafening. The big man, his shaved head gleaming beneath the low-slung lights, ignored them, his large features and close-set dark eyes a mask of concentrated hate.

At the ringside, The Brute paused before stepping into the ring. A small, well-dressed, scholarly looking man seized the 18-inch arm in his tiny hand and leaned forward, whispering in The Brute's ear. The monstrous creature frowned, glared at the little man—who looked back at him calmly—and then nodded. Pressing his lips together, he leaped up and through the ropes.

A writer, watching closely, noted an important thing; the wild look that had characterized The Brute's expression had suddenly vanished. He looked calmer now—more like a human being rather than an animal. Who was this little man with the meek appearance—and the iron control over one of wrestling's fiercest monsters?

"It's his father," said one fan, knowingly.

"Naw," jeered another, "—it's his manager. All them managers are weak-lookin' little guys, but with brains!"

A third fan raised an eyebrow. "It's neither," he said, and he sounded as though he knew for sure, "—that's Jim Bernard's psychiatrist. The man who keeps him from killing his opponents."

It sounded like a gag, or a publicity stunt—but a fascinating one. The writer decided to look into the matter.

It's no gag. Half way through the one-fall bout, after inflicting severe punishment on big New Zealander

KILLS SOMEBODY!

Abe Jacobs, 250-pound Jim "Brute" Bernard, in the act of ramming the other's head through the ring floor, was seen to stiffen suddenly. From the ring apron came a quiet but compelling voice, "Jim!"

It was the doctor. As Bernard stared at him momentarily, the bespectacled man leaned forward and stared. He shook his head. Bernard eased up. A few minutes later, it seemed that the tide had turned. Jacobs, a fine wrestler in the heroic mold, took advantage of the quieted Brute to make his move. But the onslaught only served to enrage Bernard again. He seemed to go berserk as he clubbed and tortured his victim.

It was ten minutes before Jacobs, thoroughly beaten, could leave the ring. The Brute, not satisfied with victory alone, kept hurling his hapless victim around the ring, punishing him severely. At last, slipping from The Brute's grasp, Abe managed to get to the temporary safety of the apron. The monster, his eyes unfocused, rushed after him. Luckily, they came through the side where The Brute's psychiatrist stood, looking very worried. The little man grabbed Bernard's arm as he went by.

"That's enough!" the analyst whispered hoarsely. Again Bernard stiffened; slowly, he relaxed. Jacobs made it to the stairs that led down to the dressing room.

The chief of the arena police force came up. "Think it's safe to let Bernard go down there? There's only one dressing room in this place."

The doctor said it would be okay. "He'll be all right now that the match is over. He only gets wild in the ring."

The writer, standing close by, followed big Jim Bernard downstairs. He knew he had a story. Here it is:

Twenty-five years ago, a son was born to the Bernards of St. Jerome, Quebec, Canada. He was a handsome child, normal in every respect; the Bernards were happy. But not for long. It soon became clear that young James was going to be heavy. Too

The Brute flares back in anger as opponent Abe Jacobs waits his next move. Abe was then lifted up like a child and hurled out of ring.

The tough breaks started for Jim Bernard from the very beginning. Not only was he a fat and unlovely kid, but he was destined to be brought up in an orphanage. He had two strikes against him before he even went to bat.

Young James grew heavier and heavier. And the fatter he got, the more the other children made fun of him. Instead of fighting back, Jim would just grit his teeth and hold in the resentment. Slowly, he built up a vast well of hatred that was to play a big part in his later life.

Finally, the nuns at the orphanage could do nothing more with him. As the taunts of the children grew in number and volume, the boy grew unruly and surly, refusing to cooperate with the regimentation or the kindness.

He was fourteen when everybody concerned decided he was big enough to go out into the world on his own. They said goodbye, in relief, and James Bernard went.

He was big enough, all right. He weighed 315 pounds.

And he went to Montreal, the nearest big city. Maybe, thought James, with so many people in that town, some of them will be nice to me.

A few of them were. One gave him a job in a meat packing plant. This was after the monster of a youth had failed at job after job. In his teens, he was not sufficiently educated to hold any responsible position. And when he finally got the packing job, he was close to suicide.

It didn't last too long, even though it was the first time he'd worked at something where he could use his great natural strength. But the best thing that ever happened to James Bernard was when he lost that job.

The hard work was wonderful for growing muscles—and reducing. By the time he was 18, he had pared down to a trim 260—mostly muscle. And he was even stronger. It was child's play for him to lift a full hind-quarter of beef up onto the hook.

One day a short, stocky man came into the plant; he watched Jim work for awhile, then spoke up. "How'd you like to be rich, famous independent and happy?"

Jim Bernard said, "Je ne comprends pas."

It was the third strike against Bernard: he could speak no English.

But the stocky, curly-haired little man could speak French. He said, "I'm Jack Britton, a wrestling promoter. I'd like to try you out in the ring."

These words were to change Bernard's whole life.

Not overnight. His is not exactly a Cinderella man story. First, before becoming rich, famous and independent, Bernard had to learn how to wrestle. It took him four years of intensive training and amateur competition at the Montreal YMCA.

But Big Jim was happy. At last he had found a way to get even for all the years of misery at the hands of the other children. Like him, the other children had grown up, too. When he was in the ring, it was almost as though he was hitting back at them. Sometimes he hit too hard. After slamming a few of his opponents too viciously, he was warned by the AAU to take it easy. Britton had a tough time keeping his tiger — elephant, rather — within the bounds of the Law.

Jim had to get another job, one with shorter hours. So he was taken on as a bouncer in a night club. Only thing is, he bounced guys too hard. Once, a customer proved obstreperous, one of those guys who, with a drink or two in him, thinks he can lick the whole world. He picked the wrong part of the world to lick when he picked Bernard's night club. Jim slugged him, broke his jaw, threw him bodily into the street—and into the hospital. The guy sued.

Bernard was barred from working in the clubs after that. But by then he was almost ready to meet his destiny.

Jack Britton figured he could take on just about any professional wrestler.

They shaved his head. It was all he needed to look about as terrifying as a hand grenade with the pin out. And the effect in the ring was the same. His first bout, in Montreal, almost resulted in a manslaughter charge. Jack Britton knew he had big trouble on his hands.

A day or two later, he called a meeting of the board of strategy, including promoter Eddie Quinn. "I'm taking this kid with me to Detroit," Britton told them. "But we've got to tone him down, somehow. Look at this letter I got from a lady fan."

The letter said, "Jim Bernard is exciting to watch, but a law should be passed prohibiting him from the ring. Why don't you stop that brute before he kills somebody!"

That's how Bernard got his title, "The Brute"—and that's how he got his head shrunk.

It was Quinn who suggested the psychiatrist. "The boy's not crazy, understand—he's just got it in for people in general, so he takes it out on his opponents. Maybe the analyst can steer him straight. Otherwise, He'll—"

"Otherwise," interrupted Britton, "I'm out four years of training."

They hired the best analyst in Montreal. The man came up with a startling, and somewhat frightening, story. "This boy's perfectly normal—until he gets into the ring. Then he tries to kill the kids who used to make fun of him when he was fat, mentally, that is. Someday, he may succeed!"

So now, before Jim Bernard, The Brute, goes to the wrestling arena, he goes to his analyst first. Sometimes, when he's meeting an especially good wrestler—like Abe Jacobs, as was the case in Flint, Michigan—the doctor goes practically into the ring with him. At each of the towns where Bernard is slated to wrestle, a good analyst is alerted for an emergency call—just in case.

In the few years he has wrestled professionally, Bernard has come up slowly but carefully, raised almost like a baby by Jack Britton and his partner, Bert Ruby. Bernard has continued to build up his strength, even though there is no longer any need for it. He is afraid of getting fat again. Although his weight-lifting ability is a secret, there are rumors that he lifts poundages overhead that the average weight lifter can barely get off the ground.

Britton and Ruby, both ex-wrestlers who know the business from the canvas up, think there is no limit to Bernard's ability. They're about ready to let him go all out in an attempt to master the wrestling world. All that stops them is Bernard's unknown power.

"I'd feel like hell if he really did rip somebody's face off," says Britton sincerely. "Still, we have to let him go, one of these days. Maybe put him in with Killer Kowalski or somebody like that. What a match that would be!"

As for Jim Bernard, The Brute, he doesn't even think about things like that. He's too busy improving his English. He does pretty well, too. Still, it's a terrifying experience for a pretty girl, waiting for a bus, say, to suddenly have this brutish creature come up behind her and say, "You—me—we have vahneela ize greem zoda, non?"

Almost as terrifying as having to meet The Brute in the ring. □

Vince listens in as Antonio Inoki talks to Japanese press. Vince spends much of his time making trips around the world to find top talent. "Japan has many great wrestlers," he said. "I hope to sign some of them and bring them back to America," he adds. Already Baba The Giant and fellow countryman Kobayashi have toured the areas McMahon promotes. Both hope to get a shot at the W.W.W.F. heavyweight title.

VINCE McMAHON'S WORLDWIDE SEARCH FOR TALENT

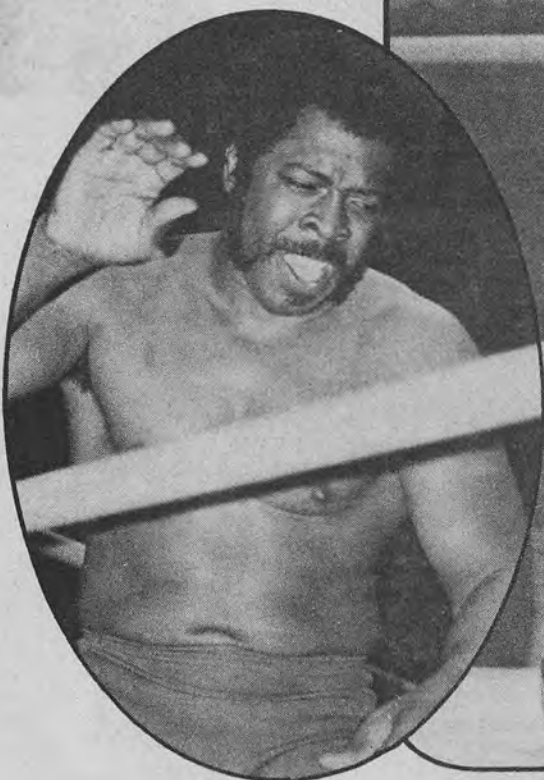

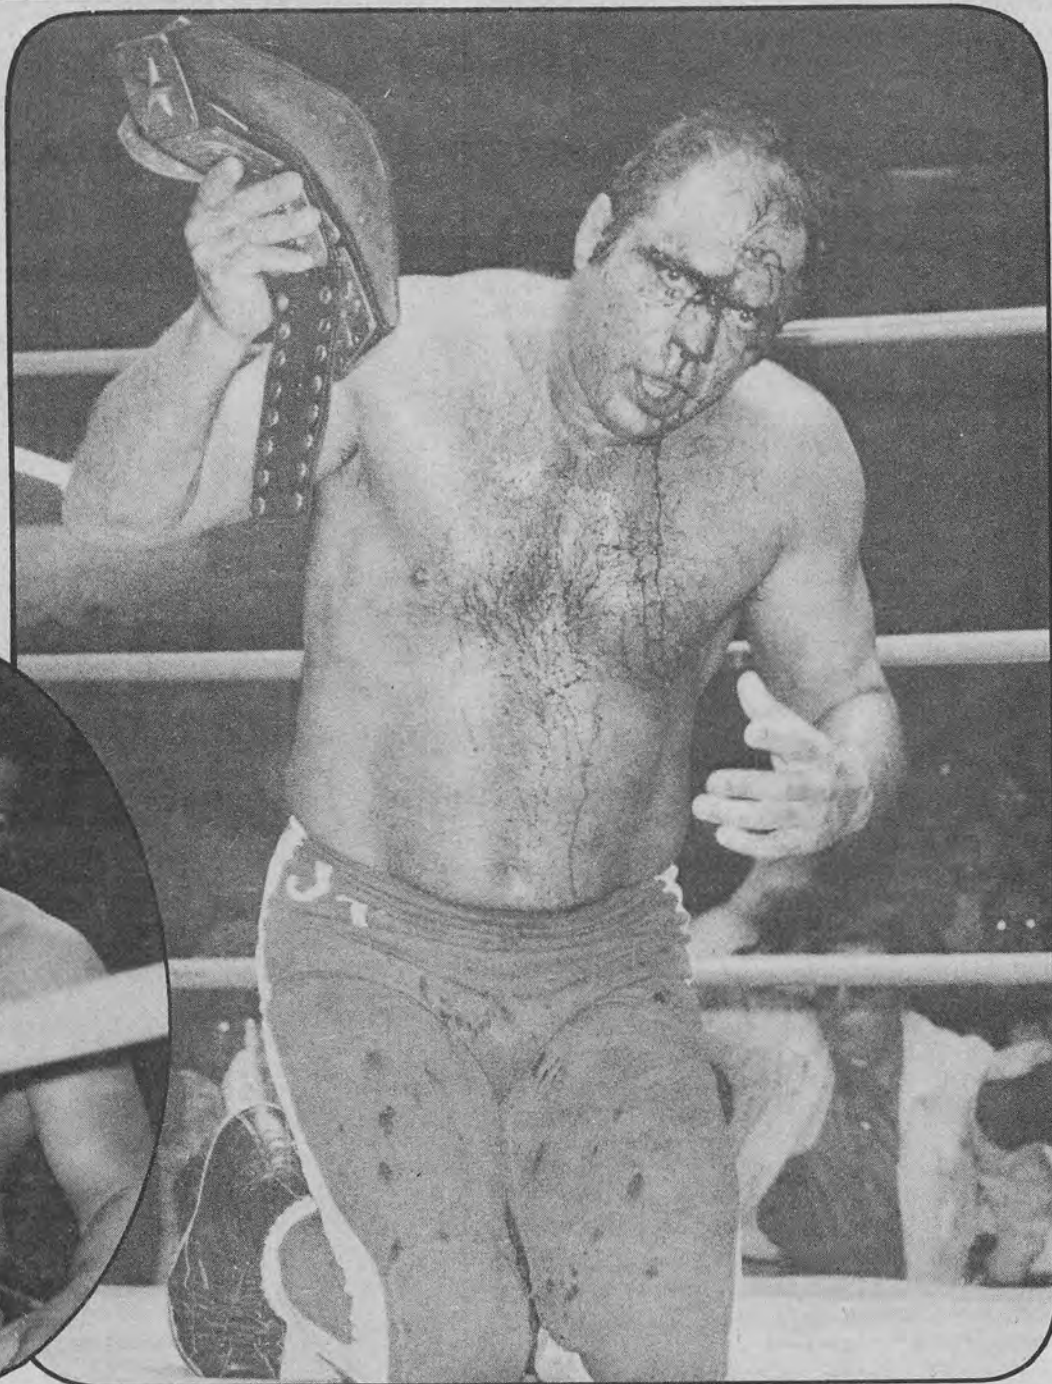

It's no wonder Eastern fans get some of the greatest talent in the world. Their promoter, Vince McMahon Sr., travels all over the world bringing back top stars for fans to enjoy.

Between matches Vince and a Japanese promoter talk over a possible contract deal. Japanese wrestlers look forward to wrestling in Madison Square Garden. "I guess it's like a real status symbol," Baba said. "People in Japan have long spoken about the Garden and they know that when one of their own go there, it is a great honor," he added. "I look forward to going to America and appearing in that giant arena."

STARTLING UPSET!

Unknown Bobby Cash (below) better known by his nickname "Porkchop," stuns the entire sport by winning the Americas title from John Tolos. Tolos thinks he's retained the belt (right). But the referee will take it from him and give it to Porkchop.

UNKNOWN COPS TOLOS' TITLE!

JOHN TOLOS HAS learned that accepting challenges from everyone means you might have to wrestle someone — someone who can take your championship title away!

John Tolos owned the Americas title until he decided the opponents he was facing weren't up to his standards. That's when he issued a challenge to the audience, following a victory.

"Since the promoters," Tolos screamed, "can't find an opponent worthy of me, I challenge the fans to find me an opponent! Or I will wrestle anyone in the audience. I can defeat anyone!"

"Bet you can't defeat me!" shouted a voice in the audience.

"I can not only defeat you!," Tolos shouted back, "but I'll humiliate you so badly you'll be afraid to show your face on this continent! I only hope you have friends in some place very, very far away."

"Are you willing to put your title where your mouth is?" the voice responded after Tolos' tirade.

"I'll wear this belt into the ring!," Tolos screamed, "and I'll wear this belt out of the ring! Now, if the dumb patsy has enough guts, why don't you come up here and show your face?"

And with that, Porkchop Cash approached the ring.

Tolos took an involuntary deep breath because Cash was large and powerful — and his hungry eyes showed how badly he wanted the belt.

Cash climbed through the ropes.

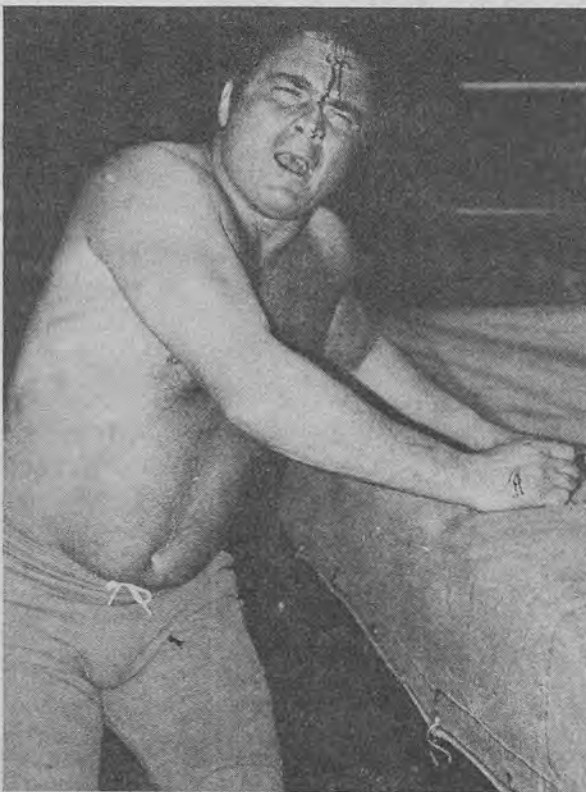

"In a week?" he asked, glaring at Tolos.

Tolos had recovered his composure enough to angrily snap back, "In a week. Make sure your life insurance is paid up."

"And you," Cash said with a cold grin, "can look for another line of work."

The man who challenged John Tolos, Porkchop Cash, knew he wasn't bragging or getting in over his head. Cash had been paying his dues for a long time, wrestling in matches all over the southeast. He brought himself along slowly, making sure of his skills. Then he slowly worked his way higher, until he felt ready to become a star.

Porkchop bloodies Tolos and sends him sprawling onto the ring apron (above) and finally onto the arena floor. Tolos didn't know what hit him. "That bum used a foreign object," he claimed. "No I did not!" Cash insists. "I busted him open with my bare hands." Cash was literally unknown and had been wrestling in small arenas all over the country getting much needed experience.

It's doubtful John Tolos will ever again issue a challenge to angry fans. He lost his championship the last time he did!

EVEN DORY JR. THE "NEW" MR

Dory Funk Jr. (above) and masked Mr. Wrestling II are friends in spite of what the masked man did to Dory (right). "I just can't get mad at him," Funk contends.

IT WAS A contest between scientific wrestling and dirty wrestling with a state title and N.W.A. title shot in the balance. Winning meant everything.

The two wrestlers were Dory Funk, Jr. and Mr. Wrestling II, the N.W.A. Georgia champion. But the match was more important than career considerations. A strong friendship had been recently destroyed and it was the first time the pair would meet as enemies.

"I don't care what excuses he uses," Dory said before the match, "there is no excuse for becoming a rule-breaker as far as I'm concerned. I have dedicated my life to this sport, protecting it from those who would drag it down to the level of a brawl.

"For years Mr. Wrestling II believed as I did. It was the basis for a friendship that I held in great esteem. Now he seems determined to spit on those beliefs, putting the championship above all else. I can't be friends with someone like that. I look back on our friendship with great pleasure but I look forward to Mr. Wrestling II as my enemy.

"I want this match," Dory concluded, "to prove that scientific wrestling is more effective than dirty wrestling. Maybe I can beat some sense into the guy."

"I could still be his friend," Mr. Wrestling II said, "but Dory has these principles. You have to respect that even if you think he's crazy for believing it. So he's no longer my friend. I'll survive. It might be nice to prove a point to him, though. And there's no denying that beating a former champion can't hurt my career.

"And, it'll be nice shutting up that sanctimonious phony for good," Mr. Wrestling II added, betraying how deeply he felt the sting of Dory's accusations.

So the two proud men wrestled each other, determined to end their friendship in a bloodbath. It was the first time the friends would meet as enemies, though both knew it

STARTLING OF AP

You've read and enjoyed reports of apartment house wrestling matches. But what about the wrestlers themselves? What are the girls who wrestle really like? Why do they do it? Now, for the first time, we take a different, deeper look at the young ladies in this fastgrowing new sport

The action is always fast and furious with the young ladies ready to mix it. Who may get hurt is of no importance. The girls give no quarter and expect none in return when they are apartment house wrestlers.

THEY ARE IN constant demand by the richest, most sophisticated people in the United States. Yet, although they accept money, most prefer to wrestle for the sheer thrill of the sport. What kind of girl becomes an apartment house wrestler?

According to rules the girls have made themselves, last names are kept a secret from the press. This is to prevent the women from being deluged with requests for dates. The deluged with requests for dates. The girls wish to protect their private lives. We have honored that stipulation.

The first young lady to gain fame as an apartment house wrestler was the beautiful and skillful Valerie. When not wrestling, she is a sweet and charming young woman whom one would mistake for a P.T.A. president. After seeing her wrestle, one would never make that mistake again.

"It's exciting, pitting your strength, ability, and cunning against another woman," Valerie explains, "especially when a lot of people are watching. You can feel their eyes glowing with excitement as you compete. There's no experience quite like it."

Valerie believes that women should engage in physical sports just like men.

"Women have too long," Valerie contends, "been able only to participate in sports like croquet and golf, because they were supposed to be ladylike. That's nonsense. Women are easily as physically talented as men, so why shouldn't we be respected for excelling in contact sports. I think women who play football or other contact sports are great. And they're women; make no mistake about that! To equate weakness with femininity is disgusting! A woman must be able to extend herself fully in all areas."

Valerie has wrestled many times and been hurt many times. She remembers some matches very, very well.

"It was against Gloria, whom I wrestled many times. She got me in this incredibly painful headlock that made me feel like my skull would crack open. She had my neck

The ladies aren't too familiar with the rules of wrestling (left and right) but they do know what's effective and how to do that. Choke holds and hair pulling are common.

twisted and thought she had me finished.

"I struggled for more than three minutes. We must have rolled on that floor for more than 10 minutes until she finally released me. I couldn't move my neck for a week afterwards.

"Still," Valerie concluded, "I wouldn't miss a match for the world. There's just nothing like it!"

Gloria agrees there is nothing quite like apartment house wrestling. She would sooner give up her career as a highly paid dental assistant than miss her matches.

"You feel physically vital," Gloria says, "every second of the match. When your body is responding to the skill and power of an opponent, it is a great physical awareness of

Holds such as the Boston crab (left) are common in apartment house matches, although it's more likely to find the girls tearing at each other without any thought to scientific tactics (right) as the two young ladies show here. Although they say it's primarily the athletic thrill they seek, the girls are very aware their matches turn men on and that is one of the reasons they wrestle in these contests. So everyone is happy at the matches.

No matter what happens, the matches are never stopped until there's a pin. Sometimes the matches get very rough and closed fists are used (above) or the apartment seems too small to contain the action (right). These amateur contests are sometimes furious, brutal brawls.

your body. And it's more than that. Your mind and body function as one, putting all you have into one physical action. I can't imagine any feeling more exciting."

Yet, Gloria doesn't share Valerie's belief that weakness shouldn't be a feminine trait.

"I like to have a man think he's stronger than me," Gloria admits. "I like to feel protected. That's why I never would wrestle a man, like Valerie says she'd like to do. I want him to be the breadwinner, the head of the household."

Gloria doesn't feel her apartment house wrestling would scare off men because they would be afraid she is too much to handle.

"Men are excited by apartment house wrestlers," Gloria has noticed, "just look at the audience. The men watch us very intently. I know men like us, dressed in bikinis and moving sensuously. I think men want to get to know girls who aren't afraid of showing that they're physical. Nowadays, men get turned on by a woman who has her hair messed up. Especially if she got it messed up wrestling. And the men's reaction turns me on.

"Don't misunderstand me, though. I'd wrestle even if there was no audience at all. It's the athletic thrill that I really crave."

Yet, how does a woman manage to absorb the punishment from a head scissors, take the agony of

Sometimes the girls pin their opponents in the classic way (below) or use their imagination (right) but the result is the same. The matches go two out of three falls and both young women are put through great physical hardship in the matches. But the girls say they love of every minute of the sometimes savage action.

Apartment house wrestling can get viciously bloody (left) as one girl scrapes her nails across her opponent's face (below). The girls also learn to absorb a lot of punishment (right). It's a rough sport, there's no doubt about it!

her head being brutally squeezed between her opponent's strong thighs?

"The excitement of the struggle," Gloria contends, "makes up for the pain. If you don't risk anything, you don't win anything. And the rewards from apartment house wrestling make up for the scratches, punches, and even lost blood!"

"The only time I think the thing is wrong when it's between two girls who don't really like each other or want to settle some argument. That's not what apartment house wrestling is about. They should settle their arguments in private. Or else turn professional, where they believe in that sort of thing. We're amateurs and should keep this a fun thing."

One woman who disagrees strongly with Gloria's last statement is Judy, who turned a match with Janet into a grudge brawl that became an apartment house wrestling classic. Private copies of films taken during that match have been sold for as high as $250.

It was a bloody battle in which Judy got revenge against her opponent, Janet. It seems that Janet had taken up with Judy's boyfriend. Judy was determined to make Janet regret ever seeing the young man's face.

"If men can settle something like that by brawling," Judy asks, "why Bobby Duncum is ready for action (left). Tsuruta jumps Bobby (right) sending him crashing into the ropes.

ON HIS CHAMPIONSHIP quest across the United States, Tommy Tsuruta travelled to the South in search of Bobby Duncum. Duncum almost destroyed Tsuruta's best laid plans.

"Duncum is one stepping stone," Tommy said before the match, "on the way to my inevitable championship. A victory over him will prove I can beat the meanest men they can put against me. I need an animal to my credit. Duncum will be my animal."

For his first time in the South, Tommy's lack of curiosity was astonishing. Except for the field of battle

Tommy Tsuruta went down South on his trail to what he hopes will be the championship. But Bobby Duncum showed Tommy it may be a harder, longer road than the Japanese star had figured inside the Atlanta arena, which he examined exhaustively. Tommy saw nothing of the South's natural beauty nor did he avail himself of Atlanta's famed nightlife.

"I am not here to sightsee," Tommy explained. "I'm sure it's beautiful and Atlanta is a fine city. I have one purpose in life—to win a championship. I don't want to lose sight of that goal for even a moment. There'll be plenty of time to enjoy the good life when I bring my championship back to Japan."

It's the same no matter where Tommy travels. He sees nothing of the area except what can be seen going to and from the arena. He wants only one thing from his travels—a string of victories up to and including a championship. All other of life's considerations will be taken care of if and when he realizes his ambition.

Bobby Duncum would also like to be champion. He naturally resented Tsuruta's claim that he was "a stepping stone" to Tommy's championship.

"The only stepping to be done," Duncum declared, "will be me stepping over his broken body. I eat punks like him for breakfast. There've been hundreds of clods who thought they could beat me and wound up vegetables. Nobody is putting me down as an "opponent," a guy you wrestle on the way to bigger things. Tsuruta is going to find out I'm more than he can handle. This is one match I promise he'll never forget!"

So a determined Tommy Tsuruta met a savagely angry Bobby Duncum. From the moment the bell sounded, it was obvious both men wanted to dominate and control the action. Winning wasn't enough. The victory had to be convincing.

The two men charged at each other. Tommy sidestepped the onrushing Duncum and captured Bobby off balance. A fluid twist of Tommy's body sent Duncum crashing to the mat.

Bobby sprang to his feet like a cat, making sure the flip didn't do any further damage. Duncum did a little fancy maneuvering himself and trapped Tommy in a headlock.

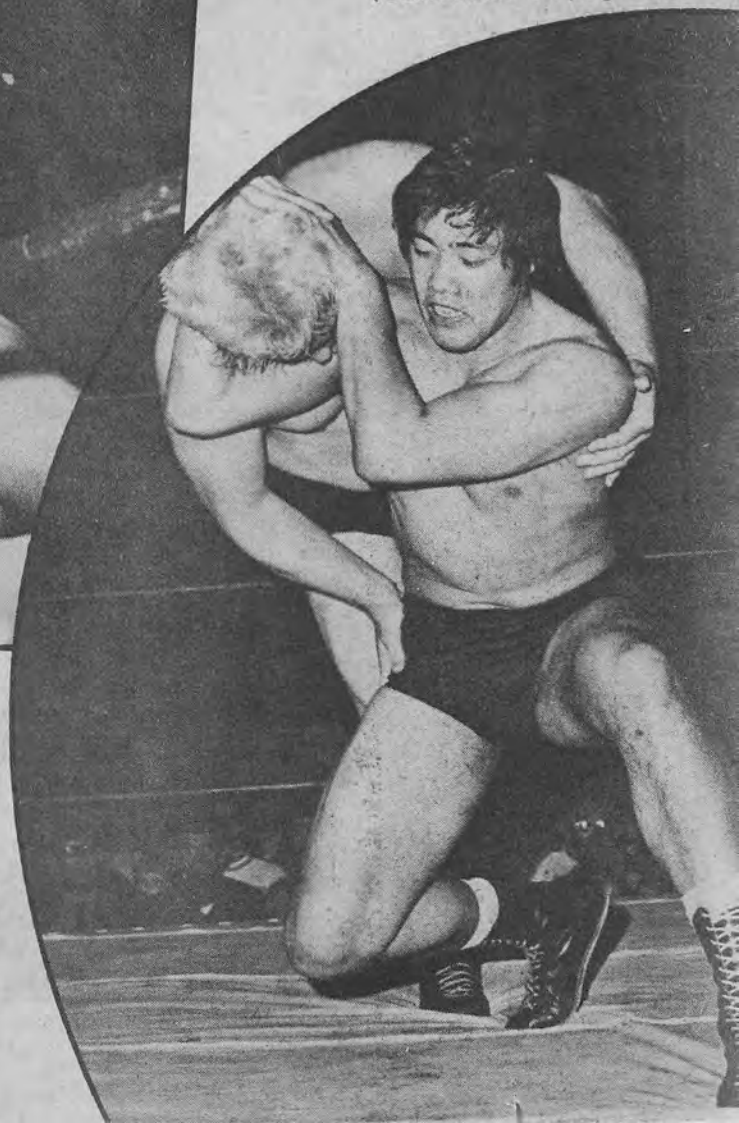

If Tommy was looking for proof to show the world he can take it from "an animal," he had his chance and emerged with flying colors. Duncum pounded his fists repeatedly into Tommy's face. The sounds of the pun-

TONE!"

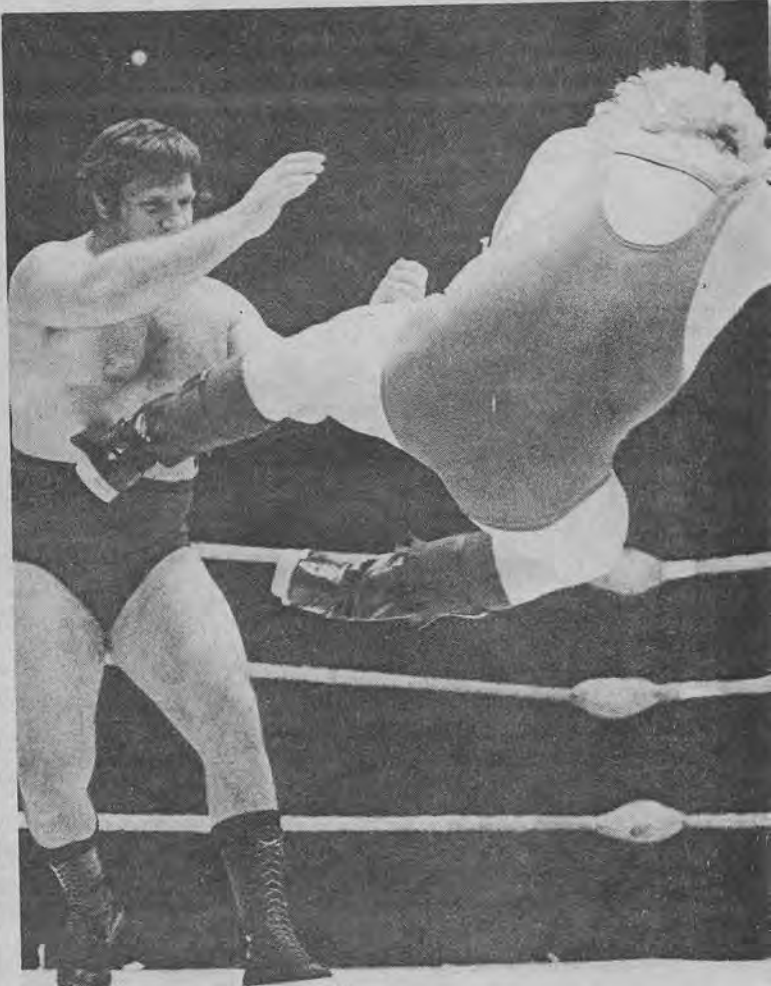

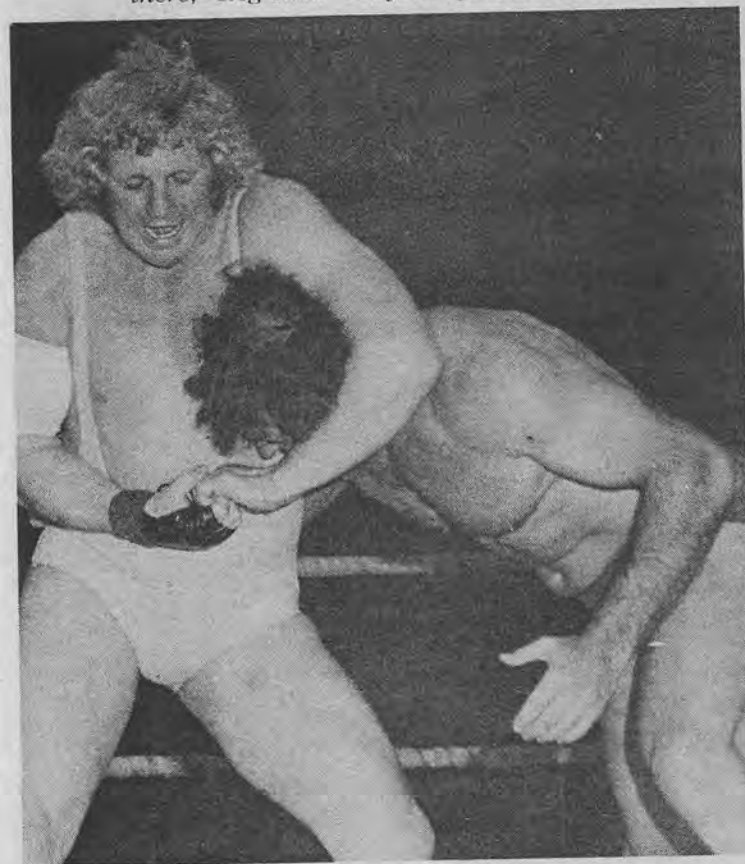

Bruno Sammartino smashes away at Hays (left) after getting a going over by Hays. Al flips Reg Parks (below). "He hit me with that gloved hand," Parks said, "and knocked me out."

WHAT DOES LORD AL HAYS HAVE HIDDEN IN HIS BLACK GLOVE?

If Lord Al Hays does have something concealed in that black glove he wears he does a good job of hiding it. No foreign object has been found. He insists he doesn't use one. But could a plain fist do such damage?

Hays has Parks in a headlock (below). Moments before he was pounding Reg's head with the gloved hand. "I know there's something in there," Reg said. "Hays dropkicks Bruno (right).

A BLACK GLOVE doesn't have to hide a weapon. Even if Lord Al Hays is wearing the glove, there can be many legitimate reasons for it. However, there are also many illegitimate reasons to wear a glove.

Many of Lord Al Hays' opponents claim the black glove he has recently donned hides some sort of weapon, enabling Hays to split skulls with a single punch. And the list of bloody victims is staggering. Yet, no one has been able to find anything in the glove before or after the matches.

"They can't find anything," Hays contends, "because nothing exists. It's a typical loser's trick to accuse the winner of being a dirty wrestler, using foreign objects. I'm dirty enough to make a foreign object unnecessary. What I don't need, I don't have. And that includes a loser's list of excuses!

"Actually, I'm flattered my opponents think my punch is too powerful to be human. I know it's the most powerful fist in wrestling.

Their stupid name-calling only proves I'm the most powerful."

If there is nothing in the glove, why does Hays wear it? Lord Al has an answer.

"I was walking down the street one night," Hays claims, "and I saw these five bullies beating up this kid carrying a violin case. Naturally, I tried to stop this heartless slaughter. Well, in the process of saving this innocent young child's life, I sprained my wrist very badly. In fact, the doctors fear I may have a support glove for years. I'll tell you something. Next time something like that happens, I'll let the little kid take his lumps!

"So I have to wear the glove to support the strain, not to mention the many torn tendons in the wrist. I may be in pain the rest of my life. You might guess my opponents would tell vicious lies about a poor cripple."

How badly crippled is Lord Al Hays? His wrist seems supple enough when he wrestles, not noticeably giving him pain. The same wrist, though, gives others a great deal of pain.

"If he doesn't have a steel plate somewhere in that glove," Pat O'Connor declares, "I'm Ringo Starr! Nobody can tell me an unloaded fist can split my head as painfully as Hays' punch tore up my forehead in a recent match. That punch was loaded to the hilt. He could have killed me if he could have kept landing those punches solidly. I've been wrestling for many years, but I've never been subjected to the kind of loaded punch Hays has.

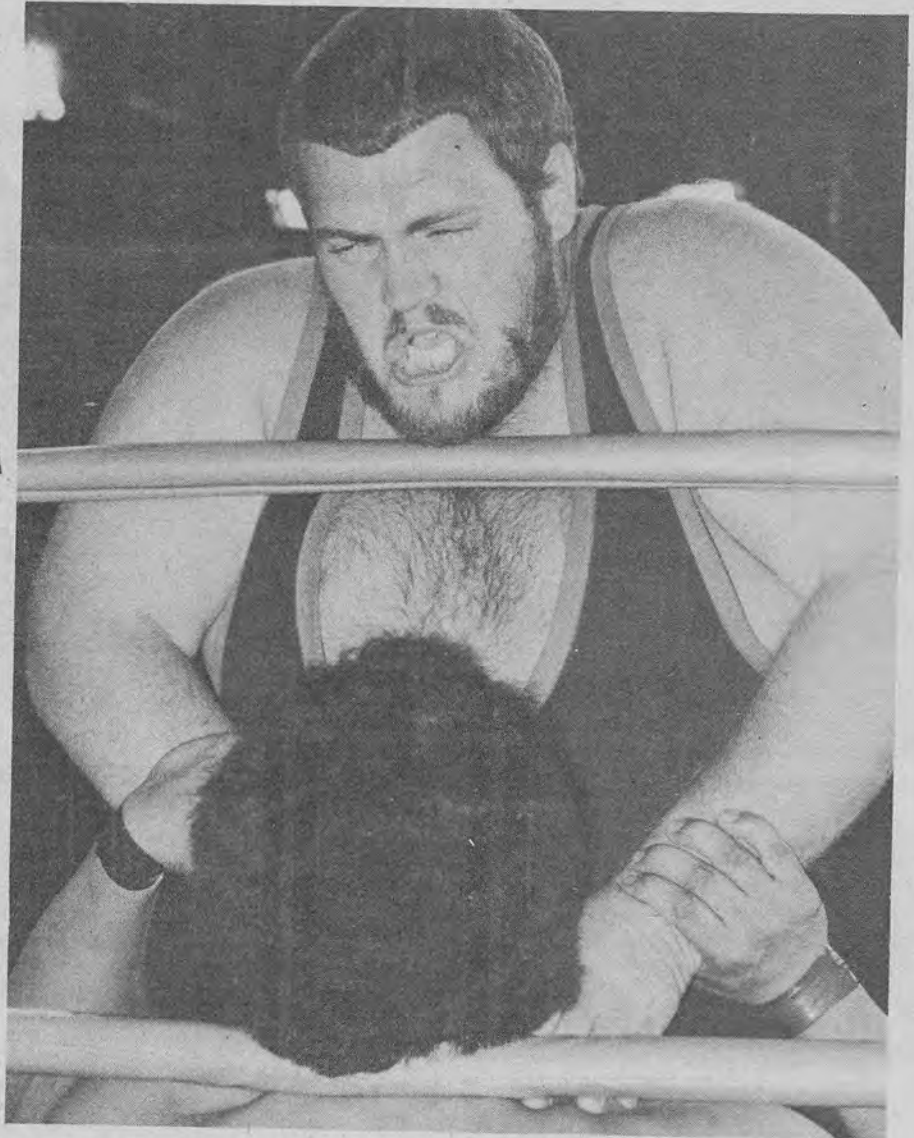

"But nobody has been able to find out where he hides the metal, or whatever he slips in the glove. I've checked the glove myself before our matches. There's nothing in it—but it is loose enough to slip something in it. That glove is much too loose to support anything!

"Maybe he hides the metal in his trunks, who knows? Maybe he keeps it in his mouth. Remember, it doesn't have to be large to be lethal." (Continued on page 54)

BUTCHER

Butcher Brannigan shows what he'll do to any opponent who has guts enough to wrestle him (above). He's squashing an apple. Think it's easy? Try it. Mando Lopez gets a taste of his brutal medicine (right).

“WHO'S BUTCHER BRANNIGAN?”

That's the question Los Angeles fans asked each other when they saw the name buried at the bottom of the wrestling card. Nobody knew who the new wrestler was or where he came from. They didn't even know if he could wrestle at all. In fact, many decided the match would provide a good opportunity to get some refreshments.

Those who did go to the refreshment stand were anxiously called back by friends. The unknown wrestler named Butcher Brannigan was tearing his opponent apart. This was no ordinary preliminary match. This was a bloody slaughter!

In five short, savage minutes, the “inexperienced” Brannigan revealed that what he didn't know about dirty wrestling wasn't worth knowing. Not only could he execute the moves, but he also expertly managed to obscure the referee's field of vision. His vicious cunning protected him from being disqualified, a fate everyone knew he richly deserved.

The arena shook with boos when the referee raised Brannigan's hand in victory. The fans fell silent as the stretcher was brought in to speed Brannigan's victim to the waiting ambulance and the hospital emergency room.

Despite his opponent's serious injuries, Brannigan was exultant later in the dressing room.

“Did you see me massacre that fool?” Brannigan asked everyone in sight. “I could've killed him if I wanted to. I gave those bums a match they'll remember. Nobody's going to wonder who Butcher Brannigan is. And they're going to want to see a lot more of him!”

Brannigan's statement proved to be prophetic. His name steadily climbed up the roster. No matter how experienced and talented his opponents were, they were savagely brutalized by Brannigan. Fans, wanting to see Brannigan beaten badly, clamored for him to face some of the areas' biggest, strongest stars.

Another voice added to the general din belonged to Brannigan himself. His ego matches his ruthlessness and he decided the main events were ready for him, instead of the other way around. He told the promoters of his decision.

"I get twice as much money and my pick of opponents," Butcher promised, "or else I'm leaving!"

"Good-bye." was the reply.

"However," Brannigan continued, "I'm willing to negotiate."

They negotiated and Brannigan was elevated to main event status. His demands were diminished during the long haggling over terms. Without his consent, his first opponent was Pak Song.

When he found out who was being chosen to meet him in his first main event, Brannigan immediately called his new friend, John Tolos. Tolos is a scarred veteran of many vicious battles against Pak Song.

It is not known exactly what was said during that conversation. Perhaps Tolos told Brannigan his formula for wrestling Pak Song—use every dirty trick in the book and protect yourself at all times. Then again, Brannigan didn't need to be told that.

Butcher Brannigan has managed to earn the hatred of Los Angeles fans in record time! They don't know where he came from but they know where they'd like him to go!

Tor Kamata (left) gets away with murder during his matches. "The referees make no attempt to stop me," he claims. "So why should I change?" He blinds Tony Marino with a handful of salt (below) winning in his usual brutal fashion. Tony Ballargeon gets a salt treatment (right).

TOR KAMATA JUST LAUGHS AT THE RULES!

IF THINGS GET rough for Tor Kamata during a match, he has a cruel remedy. A handful of salt hurled into his opponent's eyes can get anyone out of a bad situation. It also makes the eyes feel like they have been pierced with fiery daggers, possibly resulting in permanent cornea damage.

"Of course I use salt," Kamata says coldly. "You've got to be a fool not to. I play the percentages. Most of the time the referees are too dumb to see me do it or I just get a warning not to do it again. Big deal! I can count the times I've been disqualified for it on the fingers of one hand."

"When I blind a guy with salt he's not about to do anything else. He's finished for the night, if not longer."

And he remembers it the next time we wrestle. He's always watch-

Neil Guay is on his way to victory but Kamata's salt changes that plan (below). Kamata poses with manager Tony Angelo. "It's a pleasure to manage such an animal," Angelo said.

Tor Kamata willingly admits to throwing salt in his opponent's eyes. He laughs at the idea of stopping this cruel tactic as long as the referees can't or won't do anything about it ing my hands, waiting for the salt. I can bust a guy wide open while the sucker is still staring at my hands. No matter what happens in the match he'll never forget to be afraid of the salt.

"You've got to be pretty dumb not to take every advantage at your disposal. As long as I can get away with throwing salt—I'm going to keep throwing salt. Look, the same could happen to me if the morons I wrestle had the sense to use the stuff."

Whether it's sense or dignity stopping his opponents from throwing salt is open to debate. However, there is no question of the salt's stinging agony.

"It's like a fire in your eyes," Neil Guay, a recent Kamata victim recalls. "I had Kamata in a bearhug. I could feel him weakening. He was legally helpless. It was a matter of time before the match was mine. That is, if he didn't have the salt.

"He hurled a handful of the stuff in my eyes and that ended that. I was finished. The pain was unbelievable. I was also unable to see him. I just felt the kicks, the punches, and all the rest of his brutal pounding."

Naturally, many wrestlers feel Kamata should be punished severely and immediately for his salt hurling. Tony Marino has emerged as the spokesman for the group.

"To give a guy only a warning for agonizingly blinding an opponent is dangerously absurd," Marino contends. "There is no denying the salt is illegal. That's not even the point. Can you imagine any other sport which would tolerate this kind of insane behavior?"

"Sooner or later someone's going to go blind. It's got to happen. It's up to the associations to make the penalties for it so strict and expensive nobody'll even think about it. At the very least, salt throwing should be grounds for immediate disqualification. When you consider the risks involved, it's not being too harsh to expect fines and suspensions.

"Tor Kamata's salt throwing," Marino concludes, "has made it necessary for action to be taken now before it's too late. Professional athletes have a right to expect some protection from animals like Kamata."

They have a right to expect protection against wrestlers like Kamata. And even Kamata admits the referees and associations could provide the protection. It's in their power to stop Tor Kamata. Will they exercise that power? □

THE MAN WHO'D MURDER

Les Thatcher falls victim to Koloff's torture (above, left and right). Koloff gets much pleasure in making his opponents suffer agonizing pain.

Ivan Koloff enjoys breaking people's skulls. Ivan Koloff likes to make a lot of money. Is it any wonder Koloff has become one of the most feared men in all wrestling?

THE YOUNG GIRL had finally convinced her boyfriend, a wrestling fan, to take her to the matches. Knowing how sensitive she was, he had made excuses not to take her. To stop her pestering, the boyfriend took her to see Ivan Koloff wrestle. In the middle of the match she demanded to be taken home.

"You wanted to see professional wrestling," her boyfriend snapped. "This is it!"

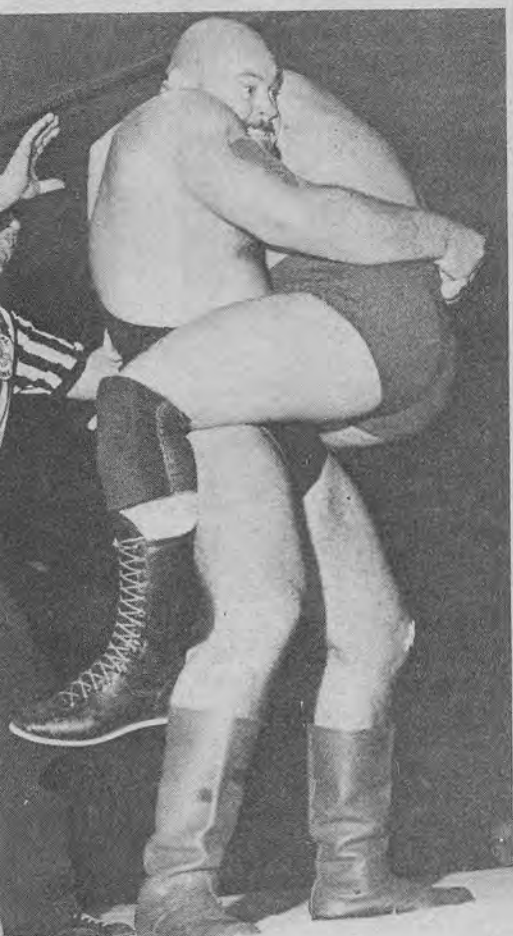

"But he's an animal!" she screamed. "He'll kill that poor man! Why doesn't someone stop him!? Someone has to stop him!"

If the young lady can find a way to stop Ivan Koloff, there are many wrestlers, referees, and other officials who'll pay her very well for the information. So far, nobody has satisfactorily stopped Ivan Koloff yet.

The young lady shouldn't think all professional wrestlers are like Koloff. Ivan is savagely unique. Few men have caused their opponents so much agony. Few men recite with such glee the list of men they have caused to be hospitalized, some for weeks. He has caused more than one man to enter another profession, one which doesn't care if he limps or can't raise his arm above the shoulder.

Koloff migrated from Russia years ago because the Soviet Union wouldn't let him pursue his career—making money by wrestling.

"I wanted to be a professional wrestler!" Koloff declares. "I like all the wonderful things money can buy. And I want them all!"

Yet one can become a wealthy professional wrestler without being brutally cruel.

"Wrestling gives me the opportunity to bust people up," Koloff explains, "something I enjoy doing. The world is fortunate there is professional wrestling. If there wasn't, I'd be doing on the street what I now do in a match. It works out very well this way. I make a lot of money doing what I'd do for nothing. I am everything I want to be — rich and vicious."

Koloff may not be rich but he's certainly been successful with his other vocation. There are many hospitalized wrestlers to attest to Koloff's ability in that area. And there will be many more in the years ahead. ☐ would not be the last. Each was determined to draw first blood.

Before the match began, Mr. Wrestling II took off his championship belt and said loud enough for Dory to hear, "Take care of it for me. I'll pick it up in a moment."

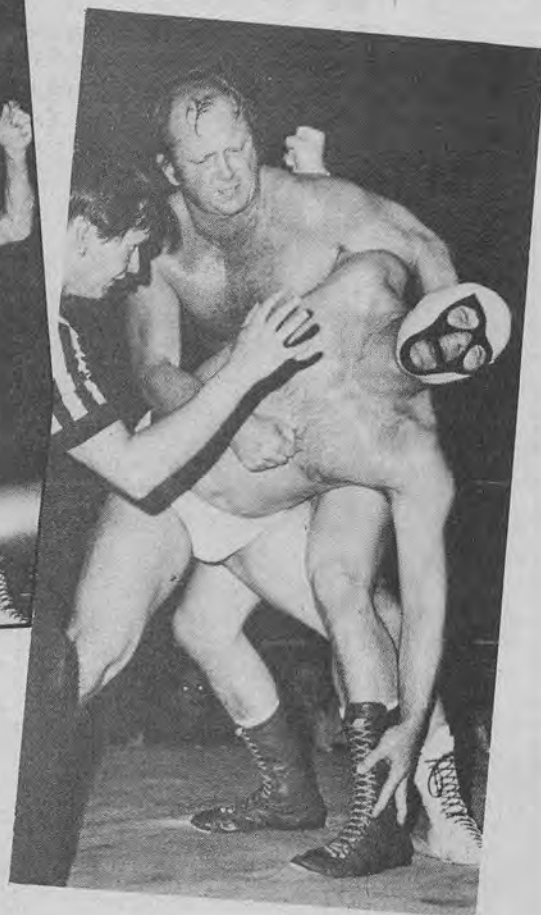

When the bell sounded, the two men rushed at each other like enraged bulls. Their anger filled the arena like electricity and the fans were soon on their feet, shaking the roof with screams.

The two struggled desperately, trying to gain an advantage. Mr. Wrestling II displayed his wide knowledge of foul tactics while Dory put on an unparalleled display of scientific virtuosity.

At first, one seemed to be ahead. Then, before anyone could understand how, the other got the advantage. It looked like a magnificent stalemate.

Just when everyone had begun to settle down, Dory devastated Mr. Wrestling II with an atomic skull crusher. Dory's forearm smashed into Mr. Wrestling II's head. The scream of agony told everyone that his mask didn't cushion the pain.

This looked like the opening Dory had struggled towards to end the match, gain the belt, and prove his point. However, where there's a will there's a way. And Mr. Wrestling II had the will to win.

Out of his trunks came a pair of brass knuckles. One loaded punch later, Dory was bleeding and reeling. Mr. Wrestling II, realizing the brass knuckles meant disqualification, decided to go all out in giving Funk a beating.

It was a brutal, ugly assault. Funk kept trying to retreat while Mr. Wrestling II waded into him. Dory slumped to the floor, his face looking like it had been through a meat grinder.

Mr. Wrestling II saw him lying the mat. At first he thought of continuing the attack. Then he realized who he was beating—his friend of many years. Mr. Wrestling II lost his stomach for the slaughter, grabbed his belt, and retreated to the dressing room.

Dory got to his feet and left for the dressing room. He had won by disqualification and therefore didn't keep the belt. But the shot at Jack Brisco's title was his. However, Dory was not happy with the victory.

"Mr. Wrestling II could have easily gotten the title shot," Dory pointed out, "by putting me out of commission. He had the weapon, had the strength, and had the opportunity. He didn't take it. For that, I'll always be grateful. I guess no man is all good or all bad. No matter what happens, when it comes down to the nitty-gritty, Mr. Wrestling II and I will be friends. We may not like each other but we'll still be friends. Strange, isn't it?"

Strange, indeed. Yet, it speaks well for both men. And for friendship. □

The Deadly Oriental Fighting Art of Instantaneous Death That Requires No Strength or CLOSE BODY CONTACT.

- ★ Self-defense without torturous training or rigorous exercise.
- ★ Instant self-defense for the weak, the defenseless, the fearful and the untrained.
- ★ Makes your body a live fighting machine! Hands, feet, elbows even fingers become deadly weapons of defense.
- ★ Faster, deadlier and easier than Judo, Savate or Karate.

Revealed at last! The most effective of all the Oriental fighting arts—KUNG FU. So simple that if you can read you can easily master the theory of this "flick-of-the-wrist" technique. KUNG FU can take anyone* without training and make him a fighting machine in seconds.

HOW KUNG FU WORKS

KUNG FU is based on a simple yet lethally effective principle that does not require you to match strength with your opponents. What you do is harness the enormous natural power of your own movements to take advantage of these fundamental laws of natural movement. Add to your rhythm the very movement against you . . . so that all forces are added together and unleashed against your opponent. This is KUNG FU—a force so simple yet so devastating that its techniques have stunned the world.

KUNG FU IS BETTER THAN ALL OTHER FORMS OF SELF DEFENSE

KUNG FU is better than all other forms of self defense! Its secret lies in its simplicity and in its ability to overcome an attacker WITHOUT INTRICATE BODY CONTACT. With KUNG FU's "flick-of-the-wrist" technique, YOU CAN WIN . . . EVEN IF YOUR OPPONENT IS BIGGER AND STRONGER THAN YOU. You can win if your attacker surprises you. And more—KUNG FU means deadly, often crippling self defense where every part of your body is a fearful weapon. Your feet, your hands, your elbows, your fingers become lethal weapons WITHOUT REQUIRING SUPER MUSCLE-POWER OR BRUTE FORCE. And you can do all this without years of training, special exercises, and especially hundreds of dollars in cost.

WHAT KUNG FU WILL MEAN TO YOU

With so many crimes of violence about you you could be in danger—anytime—of being hurt or worse humiliated! BUT NOW YOU CAN DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. You can protect yourself, your family and your property with deadly efficiency in mere seconds. Yes, and you can do it without years of training, hundreds of dollars in cost, and without long, painful practice. Regardless of size, strength or build you can beat the bullies and better the odds. Thanks to KUNG FU you need never be afraid again. You too can learn to overcome the fear of being shamed. You too can be the one that gives the beating! You too can control threatening, dangerous situations.

*We do not claim that physically handicapped or other disadvantaged persons can perform these feats. Nor are these techniques claimed to be effective against anyone armed with a loaded gun.

WHY KUNG FU MAKES ALL THIS POSSIBLE

Other forms of self defense like Judo or Karate require strength, speed, etc . . . and endless practice. NOT SO WITH KUNG FU! Technique and form aren't important, DEFENSE IS! KUNG FU is designed to help you defend yourself in most situations* with an absolute minimum in effort and a maximum in protection.

COMPLETE SECRETS REVEALED NOTHING ELSE TO LEARN

The SECRETS OF KUNG FU are fully revealed in one amazing "how to" book. The course comes complete and there's nothing else to learn or buy. You don't need any special apparatus or practice dummies. And once you master the SECRETS OF KUNG FU you can forget about other systems and other methods. Now, in the privacy of your own home, you can learn the deadliest fighting secrets of all time at your very own pace! In just minutes you can find out how to deliver a crippling blow that leaves your opponent powerless . . . in seconds you learn how to destroy your attacker's ability to fight . . . and much, much more. The fully revealed SECRETS OF KUNG FU are so sensational that we make you this UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE: You must be fully satisfied or it costs you nothing.

Tolos vows revenge (right) and says "That creep won't hold MY title too long." Tolos looks like he's in a state of shock (below) as Cash slugs away at the cut on Tolos' head. "I want to keep the title out of the hands of guys like Tolos," Porkchop (right) explains. "I'll fight to every drop of my blood to do so."

However, at this time he got the urge for traveling. Someone once said, "Go West, young man," and that's exactly what Cash did. You can't go much farther west than Los Angeles.

That was how Porkchop Cash found his way to the arena where John Tolos was wrestling. He had only come to check out the competition when Tolos issued his challenge.

"What have I got to lose?" Cash wondered and accepted the challenge.

Though the challenge was accepted on the spur of the moment, Porkchop took it very seriously. In his one week Cash learned more about Tolos than most wrestlers have discovered in years. Films, press clips, and talks with recent Tolos opponents filled Porkchop's seven days before the match. He knew his opponent.

Which was more than Tolos knew. John didn't even know Cash was a professional wrestler until John was the ex-Americas champion!

The night of the match arrived and a whirlwind named Porkchop Cash tore out of his corner. Tolos, expecting an easy time of it, wasn't even ready before his forehead was split open and his face was soaked in blood. And Porkchop never gave him a chance to recover. It was a brutally punishing night for the Golden Greek, John Tolos.

Finally, his agony beyond human endurance, the bleeding and bruised John Tolos surrendered his belt. His face a scarlet mask, Tolos held his lost belt aloft and handed it to the referee. The referee then made it official. Porkchop Cash, who nobody in the vast arena had even heard of, was now the Americas' champion!

John Tolos walked back to the dressing room, thinking of the moment a week earlier when he foolhardily challenged anyone in the audience to wrestle him... the moment when really lost the Americas title!

Losing Your Hair?

Hair Thinning?

Do You Have Dandruff?

Itchy Scalp?

THE COMATE HAIR AND SCALP TREATMENT MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SAVING YOUR HAIR AND LOSING THE REST OF IT.

Baldness is simply a matter of subtraction. When the number of new hairs fail to equal the number of falling hair, you end up minus your head of hair (bald). Why not avoid baldness by preventing unnecessary loss of hair? Why not eliminate needless causes of hair loss and give Nature a chance to grow more hair for you? Many of the country's dermatologists and other foremost hair and scalp specialists believe that seborrhea, a common scalp disorder, causes hair loss. What is seborrhea? It is a bacterial infection of the scalp that can eventually cause permanent damage to the hair follicles. Its visible evidence is "thinning" hair. Its end result is baldness. Its symptoms are dry, itchy scalp, dandruff, oily hair, head scales, and progressive hair loss.

So, if you are beginning to notice that your forehead is getting larger, beginning to notice that there is too much hair on your comb, beginning to be worried about the dryness of your hair, the itchiness of your scalp, the ugly dandruff — these are Nature's Red Flags warning you of impending baldness. Even if you have been losing your hair for some time, don't let seborrhea rob you of the rest of your hair.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of causes of baldness and excessive hair loss. In such cases neither the Comate treatment nor any other treatment is effective.

Note To Doctors
Doctors, clinics and hospitals interested in scalp disorders can obtain professional samples and literature on written request.

HOW COMATE WORKS ON YOUR SCALP

The development of an amazing hair and scalp medicine called Comate is specifically designed to control seborrhea and stop the hair loss it causes.

"My hair had been coming out and breaking off for about 21 years and Comate has improved it so much."
—Mrs. J. E. Lisbon, Ga.

"It really has improved my hair in one week, and I know what the result will be in three more. I am so happy over it, I had to write!"
—Mrs. H. J. McComb, Miss.

"I've used a good many different 'tonics.' But until I tried Comate, I had no results. Now I'm rid of dandruff, and itchy scalp. My hair looks thicker."
—G. E., Alberta, Canada

"I used to comb out a handful of hair at a time. Now I only get 4-6 on my comb. The terrible itching has stopped."
—L.H.M., Los Angeles, Cal.

"My hair has improved. It used to fall out by handfuls. Comate stopped it from falling out."
—D.M.H., Oklahoma City, Okla.

It offers the opportunity to thousands of men and women losing their hair to bacterial infection to reverse the battle they are now losing on their scalps. By stopping this obstacle to normal hair growth, new hairs can grow as Nature intended.

This is how Comate works: (1) It combines in a single scalp treatment the essential corrective factors for normal hair growth. By its rubifacient action it stimulates blood circulation to the scalp, thereby supplying more nutrition to still-alive hair follicles. (2) As a highly effective antiseptic, Comate kills on contact the seborrhea-causing scalp bacteria believed to be a cause of baldness. (3) By its keratolytic action it dissolves ugly dandruff. By tending to normalize the lubrication of the hair shaft it corrects excessively dry and oily hair. It eliminates head scales & scalp itch.

In short, Comate offers you in a single treatment the best that modern medicine has developed for the preservation of your hair. There is no excuse today except ignorance for any man or woman to neglect seborrhea and pay the penalty of hair loss.

COMATE IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

To you we offer this UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE. Treat your scalp to Comate in your own home, following the simple directions. See for yourself in your own mirror how after a few treatments, Comate makes your hair look thicker and alive. How Comate ends your dandruff, stops your scalp itch. How Comate gives your hair a chance to grow. Most men and women report results after the first treatment, some take longer. But we say this to you. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with the improvement in your own case — AT ANY TIME — return the unused portion for a prompt refund. No questions asked.

But don't delay. For the sake of your hair, order Comate today. Nothing — not even Comate — can grow hair from dead follicles. Fill out the coupon now, and take the first step toward a good head of hair again.

Brannigan punishes Song's arm (left) moments before the match was stopped due to an injury to that arm. One of the few good moments Song has (below), as he locks Brannigan in an armlock. Brannigan got some advice from John Tolos before wrestling Song. "Tolos is a wonderful man," Brannigan says. "I hope to capture the Americas championship just like he did," he adds.

The night of the match, fans filled the arena to see Butcher Brannigan get his head torn off. By this time the fans had worked up a fine hatred toward the vicious tactics of Butcher.

Pak Song was also confident he could make Brannigan run back to wherever he came from.

"Butcher Brannigan is through," Pak Song said with conviction. Then he walked away. He had said all he felt the matter deserved.

The match started and it looked like the fans and Pak Song would leave the arena satisfied. The veteran had Brannigan flat on his back before Butcher knew what happened.

However, it was a short-lived euphoria. Pak Song was unprepared for Brannigan's ability to twist opponent's arms, which either breaks their bones or sends them rolling away. Brannigan twisted and Pak Song learned a lesson he'll never forget.

Brannigan held on to Pak Song's arm and gave it an incredible twist. Butcher started to torture the arm, working on it with brutal efficiency. He knew just where it would hurt and cause permanent damage.

In the middle of this punishment, Pak Song let out a scream of agony. He would learn later that he tore a tendon. All he knew then was how badly his arm was wracked in pain.

Pak Song managed to pull his arm free. He had had enough for one night. Brannigan chased the injured wrestler back to the dressing room.

The fans booed loudly as Brannigan climbed back through the ropes to be announced as the winner. Pak Song, already being treated for his injuries, heard the crowd's reaction and felt a little better.

Brannigan was asked how he felt about the accident.

"Accident?" he laughed. "What makes you think it was an accident? Tearing a tendon is a simple thing to do and I did it. All you have to know is what to punch and how many times. Don't make any mistake about it—I tore that tendon on purpose! Every time Pak Song tries to raise his arm and can't—he'll remember Butcher Brannigan!"

It looks like we'll all be remembering Butcher Brannigan for a long, long time. He won't let us forget. □

BOBBY DUNCUM

ches could be heard throughout the arena. Yet Tommy refused to go down.

Tsuruta even managed to escape, still strong enough to continue. The two men battled furiously, sailing into each other with fists, feet, and bodies. Time wore on and the men became desperate. The whirlwind pace grew quicker, even more vicious. Still, no man could dominate the other.

Finally, the bell sounded. The time limit was up and the match would enter the record books as a draw.

"Of course I'm disappointed," Tommy said softly afterwards. "I needed a win and didn't get it. Dun-

A spectacular suplex slam sees Tommy confident and on the road to victory. But Duncum's vicious tactics changed Tommy's plans.

cum wasn't dirtier than I thought he'd be so I can't use that as an excuse. I have no excuses. I failed to do what I should have done. I'll do better next time. A champion learns from his mistakes."

Duncum was also angry over the outcome.

"Once they start calling you an 'opponent' on the way to the championship," Bobby said, "you've got to sit on them hard to prove you're still a legitimate contender. I didn't sit on Tsuruta as hard as I should have. I will the next time."

Both men needed to win. The match was a draw. Neither man was satisfied and both demand satisfaction. The battle may have been inconclusive but the war is still going strong. □

Bruno kicks Hays in the midsection. "I don't know why folks persist in saying I put some sort of weapon in my glove," he says. "I am an all-around clean wrestler," Hays stresses.

There is no denying Hays' punch is lethal. The list of victims grows daily. Each one claims there is some foreign object in the glove. Yet, no one's been able to prove it.

"They can't find anything because there's nothing to find!" Roger Kirby, Hays' sometime tag team partner, declares vehemently. "Those crybabies are pathetic examples of losers who can't face their own incompetence."

"It's almost sad to see these morons search and search for a little piece of metal they think is responsible for their becoming bloody messes. They're like ignorant savages looking for the evil spirit. You'd think that if they can't ever find it they'd just forget it and take their lumps like professional athletes. Well, they're a disgrace to their profession!"

Too see for ourselves, a staff photographer and reporter were assigned to concentrate on Hays during a match he had in St. Louis against Bruno Sammartino.

Although he failed to split Bruno's head open, he did stun the W.W.W.F. champion with a number of blows. However, at no time was a piece of metal or any other foreign object seen or discovered.

Even Bruno, although he refused to make any charges, gave the impression he thought there was more than just a fist in that glove.

In fact, the accusations have become so bad it became necessary for Hays' spokesman, Bobby Heenan, to release an official statement.

"Despite the professional excellence Lord Al Hays has demonstrated over the years in the greatest arenas all over the world," the statement reads, "the jealous and weak have been viciously slandering his integrity. This crime against all that is right must be stopped and stopped immediately. That people are repeating these accusations shows how low many professional wrestlers and many in the press

Hays as he looked a year or so ago before he wore the glove. "I had a wrist injury," Al says. "That's the reason I wear it."

have sunk.

"We state unequivocally that Lord Al Hays has not, does not, and will not use any foreign object while he is wrestling. Not only does he shun the use of such objects because it insults his abilities, but he has repeatedly stated he is philosophically opposed to foreign objects. Hays refuses to use a foreign object and repeatedly urges others to do likewise.

"Lord Al Hays is a great wrestler and a favorite with fans all over the world. To accuse him without being able to find one single shred of evidence is a shoddy practice which only reflects badly upon the accuser. We ask these pathetic, nasty liars to stop making fools of themselves.

"Lord Al may have to go through the rest of his life wearing this glove. He deserves our respect for his courage, not the slanders of the cruel."

Despite the accusations, Hays continues to wear the glove. He also continues to be able to split an opponent's skull with a single punch. How he does this is anybody's guess. The only one who knows for sure is Lord Al Hays. □

FUSSIN' & FEUDIN'

Ronnie Garvin's on the wrong side of a doubleteam effort as Armstrong and Fuller whip him across the ring. Brother Jim tries to interfere but Fuller chased him out of the ring.

what the other is doing and complement each other perfectly.

"We don't care what our opponents think," Armstrong declares. "We're professionals, able to cope with any situation. They can hate us but they can't beat us."

However, Armstrong and Fuller weren't too happy about Jim Garvin's presence as manager.

"There's no way I trust the Garvins," Bob Fuller says with good reason. "If there are three of them in the arena, you can bet all three of them will be in the match. That isn't wrestling, that's brawling."

But protests fell on deaf ears and Jim Garvin was standing outside his brother's corner when the match began. The family was united to face Armstrong and Fuller.

The first two to face each other were Armstrong and Terry. Terry charged at Bob but a forearm smash quickly sent Garvin reeling. The panic-stricken Terry, his eyes rolling, ran to tag brother Ronnie.

Ronnie eagerly jumped into the fray. After all, hurting his brother is like hurting him, except his brother was the one in pain.

Six rapid-fire punches smashed into Armstrong's head before Bob knew what happened. Armstrong was groggy when Garvin grabbed his hair to make him a better target. The punches kept coming and Armstrong was helpless to escape.

However, that wasn't sufficient for the Garvins. Terry had to climb through the ropes to help. Terry grabbed Armstrong's leg and sank his teeth deep into Bob's thigh.

Armstrong, outraged and agonized, lashed out with a desperation forearm smash. It sent Ronnie sprawling. Terry was still hanging onto Armstrong's leg but a brutal punch on the top of Terry's head made him release the hold.

With his two brothers stumbling around, Jim decided to jump in and help. However, when he saw an enraged Armstrong coming toward with an equally angry Fuller also heading in his general direction, Jim decided discretion was the better part of valor. Family unity was all right—but in its place. Jim decided to lead his family to the dressing room.

Armstrong corners Terry and smashes away to the delight of the huge crowd watching.

However, Ron and Terry weren't as fortunate as their brother. Armstrong and Fuller went after them with a series of flips, holds, and brutal maneuvers. The Garvins absorbed incredible punishment until they were able to escape to the dressing room.

Once inside the dressing room and safe from their tormentors, the Garvins seemed to think the match never happened.

"We'll get them," Terry said angrily, "sooner or later. Garvins never forget and never forgive!"

Were Ron and Terry angry that Jim deserted them in the pinch?

"He was our manager," Ron stated, "and we didn't expect him to wrestle. In fact, it would've been illegal if he had helped. Garvins don't wrestle illegally."

Then again, the Garvins are a proud family who wouldn't think of showing the world they are anything less than fully united. What happened to Jim behind closed doors and away from the public eye is anybody's guess. Chances are, though, it wasn't pleasant. □ can't women? If a man had battered someone who took his girl away from him twice as bad as I got Janet, he'd be considered a hero. Me, I've got to defend my actions.

"I was angry and wanted to rearrange Janet's face, which wouldn't make much difference to her ugly puss. I'm proud that I scratched and bit her face. She deserves it. Every punch, every kick, every torn muscle I gave was just my way of getting even. Every time my nails tore at her flesh and I felt her blood, it made me feel better. I'm sure every man has felt the same thing. It's about time women got to feel that way.

"You know that after the match my boyfriend decided he'd rather be with me. Well, after a week I told him good-bye. I suppose I really didn't want him. I just wanted to defend my honor. After I got my revenge, it was over for me. After all, who needs a guy who goes after any girl who flirts with him?"

But is apartment house wrestling the proper place for this sort of revenge brutalizing?

"Everyone enjoyed themselves, didn't they?" Judy counters, "and that match remains the most talked about ever! I know some of the girls felt that hatred has no place in apartment house wrestling, but it made for a great match. There are a few girls who have said they won't wrestle me because of what I did. Well, that's their hassle, not mine.

"Wrestling is one person against another person. Well, I couldn't have been any more against Janet than I was! I think grudges make the matches more interesting. Don't you?"

Surprisingly, one who agrees with Judy is Janet, the same young lady who left the match bloody and bruised.

"Judy was bleeding pretty badly, too!" Janet says with a cold smile. "And I know for a fact that she couldn't walk straight for a week! I got my licks in and have no complaints.

"Look, apartment house wrestling is a good way to let off steam.

Some of the girls let their short tempers get the best of them. Then the punches fly (above) and the holds produce excruciating pain (below). It then becomes a contest for survival of the fittest girl.

The audience doesn't care why the girls are there and it shouldn't matter to the girls. I think it's healthier to let out anger any way possible. We're young, we'll heal.

"And it's more interesting for me as one of the wrestlers knowing that my opponent hates my guts. It makes every move really count for something. I know that some of the girls think this should be strictly for fun in the spirit of good competition. Well, it's all a question of what you consider fun. Punching, kicking, scratching and biting a girl I hate is what I consider fun!"

If apartment house wrestling boasts a madcap, it's Anne. She is the redhead spitfire who waltzed into Janet's apartment one morning and challenged the drowsy Janet to a match.

"I did it on a bet," Anne admits, "from a friend of mine who's a photographer. We were sitting in one of those all night movie houses, where they have eight different horror films from midnight to morning. We were in the middle of 'Freaks' when my friend, who knew Janet, said I wouldn't walk into her apartment and challenge her to a wrestling match.

"Well, I used to wrestle when I was at boarding school. I liked it but didn't think I'd ever wrestle again. Until that time I'd never heard about apartment house wrestling. So I made my friend tell me all about it.

"When he finished, I was really excited. We went to Janet's apartment and challenged her there and then. Once she got into it, it was a really good time.

"Admittedly, she really gave it to me at the end. I hadn't wrestled in years, you know, and I'd been up all night besides.

"But after that match I couldn't wait to have another. I had my friend make the right contacts. Now I'm an apartment house wrestler in good standing. Believe me, after being cooped up in an office all day, it's good to let it all out by wrestling. The audiences are a great bunch of people. And some of the girls have become really good friends. Even Janet can almost tolerate the sight of me!"

The man who originated apartment house wrestling is Dave Moll, a burly man who organized the first match for a select group of friends.

"We all enjoyed girl wrestling," Dave remembers, "but we hate crowds. And even if we could stand crowds, it was a long time between girl matches.

The girls often tear at each other's bikini straps (above) though it's supposed to be against the rules. It's one of many rules nobody bothers to enforce. When the action gets really vicious, a girl may find herself having to wipe the blood from her cheeks (right). Few matches get to the point where the girls get bloody. Many times the girls do get to the point where they will try to tear each other apart (below). The fury of the girls at these times equals any you will see in an arena.

names of the girls to other reputable groups for no charge. In exchange, they get us in contact with new women. It works out very well.

"We have matches scheduled far into next year, with the girls choosing their opponents. We have some of the most sophisticated men and women in America in the audience, names that you would know if you heard them. Within five years these matches will be a common entertainment at the parties of the 'Beautiful People.' Mark my words."

There is no doubt that apartment house wrestling is sweeping the most cosmopolitan circles. How prevalent the matches will become is anyone's guess. SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING will continue to report on this phenomenon, no matter what the future might bring. □ deadly growth. All we know is that wrestling claimed another victim.

DEATH! THE FOURTH MAN

Danny McShane is stitched up (above). He has come close to death many times in his career. Young Alberto Torres (left, wrestling The Destroyer) died due to injuries inflicted by a masked wrestler named "The Claw." Anytime you go to a match, be aware there is always a chance death may occur during any match.

Wrestlers are especially prone to heart attacks due to their rigorous physical regimen. They strain their bodies to the limit several times a week, taking more rugged and sustained punishment than any other group of athletes. The human body can stand so much, even one in splendid condition. There is just so much even the most perfect human specimen can stand.

Wrestlers who die during a match make the headlines. Those who die from internal injuries months or years later never even get a line of recognition in a wrestling program.

Yet, the professional wrestler neither wants nor expects his fatal injuries to be acknowledged by the world. He doesn't ask for pity. To participate in the sport he loves is all he expects. He knows the risks and takes his chances. The threat of a short life as a wrestler doesn't compare with the threat of living a long life away from wrestling.

Mike Romano was a rising young wrestler who knew the risks and accepted them. He even went so far as to say so.

"It's a tough business," Mike said of the sport he loved, "and the one thing you can't prevent is death."

Nobody knows why Mike felt compelled to make that grisly statement to an interviewer. Some who knew him said he was a sensitive man whose thinking went much deeper than most people's. Others contend Mike had a premonition he would die earning his livelihood.

Irish Jack Donovan didn't figure to win his bout against Mike. Mike was considered the better competitor with more experience behind him. However, Donovan managed to punish Mike with a series of body slams that sent him crumpling to the mat. Mike never got up. The doctor who rushed to his aid pronounced him dead on the spot.

Yet, those who knew Mike wouldn't ask for tears of pity. Romano was above all a professional. And a professional wrestler makes peace with his death before he ever climbs through the ropes. □

Little Beaver stands tall in the midget world. Gal apartment wrestling (below) is a very controversial subject.

Andre's story was a testament to human dignity and integrity. Rarely have we been allowed a glimpse into the inner workings of a brilliant athlete's mind as rewarding as this article. I consider this a wrestling classic and will treasure this issue always.

Andre has shown that our Lord makes people different to show us the true meaning of human courage. Andre makes us all a little bit wiser, a little bit greater. We should all be eternally grateful to Andre for allowing us to share in his spiritual stature, which is larger than the Himalayas.

EDIE SCHAFFER

ON HUMAN DIGNITY

I take pen in hand to thank you again for your compassionate attitude toward midgets. Yours remains the only magazine that recognizes that we are people, not cute freaks.

When I thanked you for your previous work in this area in my last letter, I was afraid to include the plea for more articles depicting the midget as valuable human beings. I have learned from experience not to expect too much.

However, I was surprised and overjoyed to read the inspiring article "We're Proud To Be Midgets" (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July '74). It was the reaffirmation I needed to believe that people are aware of the special problems and joys of being a midget. I cannot thank you people enough for printing this brilliant and heartwarming piece.

Sky Low Low and Little Beaver are leaders in the fight to get human dignity for all men, no matter what their physical stature. Those two great athletes and men are 10 feet tall!

Being a midget myself, I again write my thanks for showing why little persons are real people.

APARTMENT HOUSE FAN

I read every issue of SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING but look forward to the apartment house wrestling stories most of all.

I think the girls are always beautiful, exciting creatures. These tawny terrors are unbelievably great and the photos are always tops.

I understand why you can't mention the names and addresses of the girls and apartments in the articles. However, I'll find them out on my own and can't wait to see them in person.

These girls are the most beautiful athletes I've ever seen!

Keep showing us photos of the latest and greatest of the apartment house wrestling matches. And keep giving us the great commentaries. Your reporters are the greatest!

APARTMENT HOUSE FOE

Why do you waste your time with the amateurs of apartment house wrestling when you could be devoting that space to the greatest women in the world, professional girl wrestlers?

WILD ABOUT WAHOO

"Chief Wahoo McDaniel's Personal Photo Album" (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July '74) will be something I'll treasure always.

My friends think I must be the Chief's greatest fan but I'm sure millions feel the same way I do about the great Wahoo. He's always a gentleman except when he's crossed. Then he becomes an avenging wrestler, determined to right all wrongs.

I think I've read Wahoo's commentary on the pictures so many times I have his great words memorized. Wahoo is a hero!

develop pulverizing hand power!

with the all-new KARATOK Gripper.
Takes just 5 minutes a day.

Just $9.95 p.p. Results guaranteed

Maybe you don't want to break a brick in two with your bare hands or rip a phone book in half—but wouldn't it be great if you could?

Now you can turn your hands, wrists and arms into granite-hard arsenals of power, capable of performing devastating feats! The secret is in the KARATOK Grip Developer. Based on centuries-old Japanese Karate-training techniques, KARATOK was first invented to help students of Karate develop maximum crushing strength in their hands.

Almost overnight, KARATOK begins charging your hands with the strength of a tiger's claws, starts building power-packed athlete's hands—sinewy and muscular; the vise-like grip of a Davis-Cup tennis star, the iron piston power of a heavyweight boxer, a wrestler's mighty fingers, and the bone-crushing chop of a samurai's sword. With continual use, you can build muscles that can actually smash through bricks...cut through wooden planks with a lightning stroke...rip tennis balls asunder. And you develop that devastating "bodyguard fist" that COULD SAVE YOUR LIFE SOMEDAY.

Yes, new KARATOK helps you build a GRIP OF IRON—a tremendous PLUS for boxing, wrestling, golfing, tennis, baseball, football...general physical development—and self-defense.

KARATOK is easy to use. Simply slip your fingers into the grippers, and slowly squeeze them together against the resistance of the tough, shiny steel springs. With your very first squeeze, you'll FEEL KARATOK challenge your strength with the force of a mighty beast. You'll FEEL new electric-like power surge into every tendon, every ligament, every fiber of your hands, fingers, and fist. And you'll FEEL wrists and forearms burgeon with new he-man sinews and block-busting muscles. Just 5 minutes a day is all it takes.

See for yourself. Try KARATOK in your own home. We guarantee results you can see and FEEL in 10 days. Otherwise, your trial doesn't cost a penny.

Leading Automotive Expert Reveals:

How to SQUEEZE up to 32 Miles From Each Gallon of Gas!— by making these few simple changes in your car!

Yes, Proven by Detroit Engineers . . . Proven by Indianapolis Test-Drivers . . . Proven by U.S. Gov't Scientists:

without investing a single penny in fad gimmicks, or gadgets . . . in less than 5 minutes time, you can squeeze up to 6-10-EVEN 12 MORE MILES of driving from each gallon of gas—no matter whether you're driving a Volkswagen or a Cadillac*! Think of it! Up to 22-26-EVEN 30 MILES OR MORE PER GALLON . . . even on cars over 100,000 miles old.*

by Ed Almquist, Member, Society Automotive Engineers

If you've just about had it with outrageous gasoline prices—then let me open your eyes to some vital facts discovered by automotive engineers that can give you up to 60% MORE GAS MILEAGE THAN YOU ARE GETTING TODAY!* Yes, anywhere from 6 to 12 MORE MILES PER GALLON . . . just by making a few simple changes in the engine of your car. Changes so ridiculously easy, you can often make them in just 5 minutes flat, even if you never looked under the hood of a car in your entire life.

Here's What Engineers Discovered About Your Car

After years of testing, automotive experts generally agree that out of every 10 gallons of gas fed into the average engine IT ACTUALLY WASTES ALMOST 7: that not one drop of these wasted gallons goes to move your wheels an inch. That this waste gasoline is burned up to overcome unnecessary friction . . . that is never even fully exploded or burned inside the cylinders, but instead, goes "streaming" out of the exhaust pipe—TOTALLY WASTED! And that's only the beginning.

Cut Gasoline Costs to As Little As 2¢ A Mile!

These men also discovered that the kind of spark plugs you use and the way they're set to fire can make an incredible difference of up to 37% in this gasoline waste! That by simply changing to a different type of oil costing no more than your present oil . . . you reduce engine friction to such an extent you automatically increase gasoline mileage by an additional 2 to 5 miles per gallon. That by simply making a single adjustment to one tiny screw on your carburetor, that takes but a few minutes, they could add still another 2 to 4 miles per gallon. And that by moving the timing mechanism ahead (once you're shown how, it's so easy a child can do it) . . . they were able to boost mileage output by another 2 to 7 miles per gallon. Yes, simple changes . . . easy-as-pie adjustments that add up to 8, 10, even 12 MORE MILES PER GALLON from the very car you're driving today.

Does all this sound almost too good to be true? Then read the amazing "Prove-It-Yourself" section below . . . and see with your own eyes how these dream-mileage figures can be yours in just minutes following these experts' advice.

Save Up to 50% On Your Car—This Year Alone!

And this is just the beginning. What you see below are only 2 of 250 improvements developed by these high-mileage experts . . . by Indianapolis test-drivers . . . by engineers in Detroit laboratories.

Now suppose you could have these same men who developed these secrets at your elbow 24 hours a day. Suppose that these experts showed you a simple 2-minute adjustment to your spark plugs that added as much as 2 to 3 miles per gallon . . . plus an easy trick with your tires that added as much as 4 more miles per gallon . . . plus a way that you could make one single adjustment in your engine and get up to 40 FREE GALLONS OF DRIVING in just the next 90 days alone.

Yes, and suppose these experts gave you the secret of adding as much as 10,000 to 20,000 miles to the life of your tires . . . plus how with just a few turns of a screwdriver in just a couple of minutes you can easily double the number of miles you can drive without changing your oil.

Imagine Doubling Your Gas Mileage In Less Than 5 Minutes Time

This is exactly what a brand-new book, "How to Squeeze up to 32 Miles A Gallon-And More" does for you. This book is guaranteed to save you up to 50% of your present oil bills . . . up to 90% of your present repair bills . . . up to 60% of your present fuel bills . . . PLUS add up to 3 to 5 years to the life of your car, or you pay nothing!

ALREADY
HUNDREDS
OF CARS!

Yes, right now on the road there are literally thousands and thousands of cars delivering the incredible mileage figures you see described on this page. These cars are not special models—they carry no special equipment. They are stock model cars, driven by everyday drivers like yourself. Drivers who never dreamed it was possible to squeeze so many extra miles out of each gallon of gas—until they were shown how by this man:

Mr. Ed Almquist, Member, Society of Automotive Engineers, holder of 8 U.S. Gov't. patents, author and consultant—who now takes the wraps off the little-known secrets of the trade that can easily boost gasoline mileage up to 12 MILES PER GALLON—save you hundreds of dollars a year on your car—all with just a few simple changes in your engine.

Twice The Mileage—Half The Gas!

Here are dozens of gas-saving and car-saving tricks that can save you $200 to $300 in gas bills—this year alone! How to adjust your exhaust system and get up to 15% more power and mileage . . . how to convert an engine for cold-weather driving in just 60 seconds and save 2 winter-wasted miles per gallon . . . how to do the same for summer and beat mileage-sapping heat . . . to get lightning acceleration and still get high gas mileage . . . how to go up hills without wasting gas . . . how to insert a special piece of metal that costs but 10¢ in your oil crankcase and get still more miles per gallon . . . even a complete section on adjusting your car to get premium performance from regular gas!

Here's how to get up to 20% to 30% more power without spending a penny . . . even how to get new car performance for as much as 100,000 miles or more, often WITHOUT EVER CHANGING A SINGLE EXPENSIVE PART . . . OR EVER MAKING A MAJOR REPAIR!

Best of all, each of these little-known secrets, tips and adjustments are so easy to do . . . that even if you have never looked at a car engine before in your life . . . you can make every one of these money-saving, gas-saving adjustments using nothing more than a screwdriver or a pair of pliers.

Prove It Yourself—Entirely At Our Risk

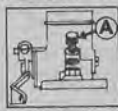

If you'd like to get gasoline mileage like you never thought possible . . . up to 8, even 12 more miles per gallon . . . then send today for your trial copy of "HOW TO SQUEEZE UP TO 32 MILES A GALLON . . . AND MORE". The price—only $3.95. Why, you'll save more than that in just one week on gasoline alone.

Examine this book for 30 days. If you do not agree that this amazing one-volume library works wonders on your car . . . and miracles in your pocketbook . . . that never in your life have you achieved such incredible gasoline economy . . . simply return for a full refund. So act TODAY!

PROVE IT YOURSELF—The following "inside-secrets" of my new book can easily mean savings of about 3 to 4 more miles per gallon—PLUS convert your present car battery into one that can last the life of your car. All in all these professional shortcuts to SUPER MILEAGE, SUPER ECONOMY DRIVING may mean savings of anywhere from $35 to $50 in the next 90 days alone.

Here's All You Do:

1. How To Beat The Number One Gas Thief . . . in just 60 seconds . . . by turning a screw! Your carburetor mixes gas with air and then feeds it to your engine. Most cars have the mixture set too rich. Here's how to correct this and save up to 15% on gas waste in practically all cars. Let your engine idle until it's warm. Now, locate the idling-screw on your carburetor. (See picture below arrow A.) Turn screw to right until engine sputters or roughens. Then, turn screw one half turn to left. THAT'S ALL THERE IS TO IT!

Now start your engine again. Notice that it turns over more quietly . . . that you seem to have more silent, almost effortless power. Clock your gas mileage against your former figure. The difference will absolutely amaze you.

2. Make Your Battery Last The Life of Your Car . . . for Mere Pennies. Ever see that white corrosive material on the terminals of your car battery? It's called sulphation . . . and it's the main reason your battery eventually goes dead. But if you tape a penny to each terminal you automatically prevent sulphation from forming on your battery. Instead it forms on the pennies. The results—for a cost of two cents and an investment of 30 seconds, you have converted your present car battery into one that will start INSTANTLY in summer heat or winter cold, usually for as long as you own your car.

I'll guide you step by step into your own thriving business

● While keeping your present job, would you like to gross $14 or $21 profit per hour?

a true story by Bob Ferrel

SOME YEARS AGO I was a printer in a small Michigan town. I drew a pretty fair pay check but it wouldn't stretch far enough to provide the kind of living I wanted for my wife and five children.

Then one day I was reading a magazine just as you now are and I saw an ad. It intrigued me. It offered me the steadily growing income I had always hoped for. It said I would have greater security and personal independence... and that's what I had been wanting.

I was a little skeptical, but I said to myself, "for a postage stamp I can find out." So I mailed the coupon. In a few days, I got a letter with a booklet that gave the whole story. It opened my eyes. I could see why owning my own business was so much easier than I had always thought... why the day to day guidance of a successful worldwide organization could assure my own success.

I read the booklet several times. It just seemed too good to be true. I talked it over with my wife. We decided that now was the time to make the forward step... there was no reason to keep postponing an income increase.

So, I applied for a Duraclean dealership and I was accepted. I stayed with my job... ran a few ads... sent some mailings... contacted a few stores and told my friends about the superior services I was now equipped to give them. Evenings and Saturdays, I rendered the service. As the business grew, I added servicemen.

I found that I didn't have to develop a single idea myself. Every step had been prepared for me and pre-tested. Hundreds of other men had already proven my methods successful.

It didn't take long to see that I was making three to four times (yes, 3 to 4 times) as much per hour in my own business as in my printing job. So, after only seven months with a good following of customers, I quit my job to go full time on my own. In the meantime, I had enjoyed all this extra income on top of my salary.

Each day, we realized what a serious mistake not mailing that coupon would have been... and how that little act that seemed so trivial at the time actually changed our lives.

The steadily growing income brought us many things we could not afford before. My efforts were so much more productive. I scheduled my time to my own liking. When we wanted a day or two off, we took it. I worked hard but, if I wanted to be home early or quit at noon, I did.

This is not a business for a lazy man. But if a man is ambitious and will work to deserve those nice things in life we all want, this business is made to order for such a man.

I became so enthusiastic about this business and so appreciative of what it had brought my family that, whenever a man opened a dealership near me, I helped him get a quick start.

The company learned about this and had each new dealer in my section of Michigan spend a day with me. One day the president of Duraclean Company asked me how I would like to move to Headquarters and spend my entire time helping dealers to increase their sales and profits.

That was good news to my ears. Since then I have worked with hundreds of our dealers in their own towns and at regional meetings, conventions and dealer group meetings. But much of the time I am right here at my desk in touch with our dealers by letter and telephone.

Incidentally I sold my dealership at a good profit. Dealers sell their Duraclean businesses for up to ten times their cost. After 30 months, Leo Lubel sold for $7,116 above his cost. If for any reason a dealer wants to sell, we maintain a service to locate buyers and help him sell.

Our job here at headquarters is to show each individual Duraclean dealer how to use his own abilities to bring him greatest success. I know hundreds of our dealers on a first name basis. We work together as one happy family. If you become a Duraclean dealer, I'll be as close to you as your telephone or mail box.

It's Easier than You Think To Build Your Own Business

If you've wanted to BE YOUR OWN BOSS... to become financially independent and have a fast growing income, now YOU CAN. And you own a Nationally Advertised business.

You can stay at your present job while your customer list grows... then switch to full time, lining up jobs for your servicemen to do. One job a day brings a good starting income.

If you hire two servicemen (full or part time) while you keep your job, the national price guide provides you a gross profit of $14 an hour on their work and this is much easier to do than you think. We show you how... step by step. That's $490 for a 35 hour week.

Your gross profit on three servicemen is $21 per hour. Duraclean dealers find it easy to gross $7 per hour on EACH serviceman plus $12 an hour on any service they themselves render. The 24 page illustrated booklet we'll mail you (with no obligation) explains how most of your gross profit becomes clear net profit. Your income is limited only by the number of servicemen you employ.

You can operate from a shop, office, or your home. Equipment is light and portable.

At the start, you may want to render service yourself... or you can start with full or part time servicemen. This business is easy to learn... easy to start... so easy to service that women dealers do it. We prefer you have no experience... not have to "unlearn" old ways.

We are NOW enlarging this worldwide system of individually-owned service businesses. If you are reliable, honest and willing to work to become financially independent, we invite you to mail the coupon.

When you receive our illustrated booklet, you will see the way we show you step by step how to quickly get customers... and still more customers from their recommendations.

You have 7 superior services that are rendered "on location" in homes, offices, hotels, theaters, clubs, motels and institutions.

These are not ordinary services. You have the prestige and endorsement of leading furniture makers and carpet mills, of Parents' Magazine and McCall's, of Research and Testing Laboratories.

National magazine advertising explains superior merits of your services, builds your customer confidence and brings job leads to you.

We and a Duraclean dealer will train you and assist you. He'll reveal his successful, proven methods. You have pre-tested newspaper and yellow-page ads, commercials, and a full mailing program.

Stores, upholsterers, insurance adjustors, and decorators refer jobs to our dealers. These year 'round services are in constant demand.

Start Small, Grow Big in this Booming Business

Many men have said to us, "I can't afford to give up my job till I know I have a sure thing... a sound business that will provide both security and a better living for my family."

That made sense to us so we worked out such a plan... and those same men are now enjoying a Duraclean dealership in many communities. You don't experiment. You use tested, proven methods. You have our backing and "know how."

Does this appeal to you? Don't decide now. Mail the coupon so you'll have the facts to decide wisely. There is no obligation. You'll then know whether this is what you want.

You can start small and grow big. A third century ago Duraclean was an idea... but it caught fire and spread to a world wide service. Why did it spread? (1) superior processes. (2) proven customer-getting methods (3) Day to day guidance from Headquarters.

Our first service, the care of upholstery and carpets not only cleans, it enlivens the fibers... revives dull colors. Pile rises with new life. There's no harsh machine scrubbing. No soaking. Mild aerated foam lightly applied lifts out dirt, grease, many unsightly spots like magic. Furnishings are used again in a few hours.

Government figures show service businesses are growing faster than industries and stores... $750 million yearly potential just in rug and furniture cleaning. Your 6 other services are explained in the free booklet we'll mail you.

Less than $1500 establishes YOUR OWN business. A day's profit more than pays the monthly payments we finance for you.

Men frequently take in partners.

We furnish electric equipment and, with first shipment, enough materials to return your TOTAL investment. If you have good habits and know the importance of customer satisfaction, you can likely qualify for a Duraclean dealership.

TODAY is the time to reserve a Duraclean dealership, before someone takes your location. It's been said, "Opportunity knocks but once at every man's door." This could be that one rare opportunity in your life.
